TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear. The parties may appear in person in Dept. 403 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Jill Mari Kimbrough and Respondent Jason Richard Kimbrough. They share three adult children, one of whom is a dependent adult daughter named Millie.
- 2) On 11/12/24, Petitioner filed a Petition for Legal Separation of Marriage indicating the date of marriage is 8/7/93 and date of separation is 10/10/24 for a marriage of 31 years and 2 months.
- 3) On 9/5/25, Respondent filed a Response and Request for Dissolution of Marriage also indicating the date of marriage is 8/7/93 and date of separation is 10/10/24 for a marriage of 31 years and 2 months.
- 4) On 3/25/26, Petitioner filed an ex parte Request for Order (and supportive declaration file dated 3/20/26) seeking: (a) guideline temporary spousal support; (b) $25,000 in attorney's fees and costs; (c) orders related to the medical care and medical insurance of the parties' daughter, Millie; (d) an advancement of funds for household cost and living expenses; (e) an order requiring

Respondent to deposit his income into the parties' joint account; (f) an order mandating Respondent make a retirement plan contribution; and (g) permission to file 2025 taxes as married filing separately and claiming 3 dependents.

- 5) Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Petitioner's ex parte Request for Order (file dated 3/23/26). Respondent requests the Court deny Petitioner's requests and asserts that Petitioner has access to funds through Millie's Special Needs Trust, which covers Millie's medical care and household costs and living expenses. Respondent states that Petitioner resides in the family home and the mortgage is paid in full. Respondent further asserts that he needs to propound additional discovery to access financial information including information regarding the Special Needs Trust. Respondent claims he does not have the ability pay Petitioner's attorney's fees and proposes the parties' take a $100,000 HELOC on the family home as a $50,000 advancement of funds for each party.
- 6) On 3/25/26, the Court denied Petitioner's request for emergency relief and set the matter for regular hearing on 5/28/26.
- 7) On 4/14/26, Respondent filed a Supplemental Declaration. Respondent states the parties are engaged in discovery. Respondent requests the Court reserve jurisdiction over spousal support retroactively so the parties can provide additional evidence on their respective incomes. Respondent reiterates that he does not have funds available to pay Petitioner's attorney's fees and states that Petitioner has improperly moved funds to restrict Respondent's access.
- 8) On 4/14/26, Respondent filed an Income and Expense Declaration.
- 9) On 4/16/26, Respondent filed a Statement of Support Calculations.
- 10) On 5/20/26, Petitioner filed a Reply Declaration reiterating her requests. Petitioner asserts that the funds she receives from the Special Needs Trust are not income but are funds used for Millie's care, including caregivers, training, medical supplies, and care-related expenses. Petitioner does not agree to take a HELOC on the family home. Petitioner claims Respondent has improperly withdrawn and restricted her access to community funds. Petitioner states that the immediate issue related to Millie's medical insurance was resolved.
- 11) On 5/20/26, Petitioner filed a Statement of Support Calculations.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) The Court finds there are material facts in dispute, which require a long-cause hearing on Petitioner's 3/25/26 ex parte Request for Order. A long-cause hearing will allow adequate time for the Court to consider all evidence on the parties' respective incomes and other sources of funding as the Court understands the parties are currently engaged in active discovery.
- 2) However, the Court finds good cause to issue an interim temporary monthly spousal support order. The Court does not consider the $19,000 Petitioner receives from Millie's Special Needs Trust as income; therefore, the Court further finds good cause to adopt Petitioner's Statement of Support Calculations, attached hereto and incorporated herein, effective 6/1/26. This order is subject to retroactive modification dated back to 3/25/26.
- 3) The Court is not inclined to make an attorney's fee award at this time unless the parties can agree on an advancement of funds. The Court reserves jurisdiction over Petitioner's request for $25,000 in attorney's fees and costs.
- 4) The Court is willing to consider appointment of a neutral third-party forensic accountment under Evidence Code section 730 with the parties to share the expense.
- 5) The Court understands that the requests related to Millie's medical care and the parties' 2025 taxes are moot.
- 6) The parties are ordered to appear to set the matter for a long cause hearing. The parties shall be prepared to: (a) discuss their time estimate for trial (i.e., number of days); and (b) inform the Court of the proposed number of witnesses they intend to present.

REQUEST FOR ORDER CHILD SUPPORT, & ALLOCATION OF 4062/4063 COSTS PER FCS 4061

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Kami Kinkaid and Respondent Richard Kim. They share two minor children: Tatum (DOB: 5/28/11) and Nelson (DOB: 4/19/15). There are no prior child custody or child support orders in this case.
- 2) On 1/24/25, Petitioner filed a Petition for Dissolution indicating the date of marriage is 9/13/08 and date of separation is March 2023 for a marriage of 14 years and 7 months.
- 3) On 3/25/25, Respondent filed a Response and Request for Dissolution also indicating the date of marriage is 9/13/08 and date of separation is March 2023 for a marriage of 14 years and 7 months.
- 4) On 3/19/26, Petitioner filed an Income and Expense Declaration.
- 5) On 3/27/26, Petitioner filed a Request for Order seeking guideline child support and allocation of Family Code section 4062 and 4063 costs pursuant to Family Code section 4061. Petitioner asserts she has a 95% timeshare with the minor children and lost her job, so she needs

Respondent to pay child support and contribute to the minor children's expenses including private school tuition and extracurricular expenses.

6) On 5/14/26, Respondent filed an Income and Expense Declaration.

7) On 5/15/26, Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Petitioner's Request for Order. Respondent asserts that Petitioner has a significantly higher earning capacity than Respondent. Respondent requests the Court issue a seek work order on Petitioner and impute her with minimum wage income as Respondent believes Petitioner is consulting as an independent contractor. Respondent additionally requests that the children's expenses be split evenly between the parties, which Respondent asserts is how the expenses were split historically. Respondent states he has significant financial debt.

8) On 5/19/26, Respondent filed a Request for Order seeking joint legal and joint physical custody and a week-on/week-off parenting timeshare. This matter is set for hearing on 7/6/26.

B. Findings and Order

1) The Court finds good cause to continue Petitioner's Request for Order seeking guideline child support and allocation of Family Code section 4062 and 4063 costs pursuant to Family Code section 4061 given that there is an initial child custody and visitation hearing on 7/6/26; therefore, the parenting timeshare may change.

2) Nevertheless, the Court further finds good cause to issue an interim child support order since Mother became unemployed in February 2026.

3) Petitioner's request for guideline child support is therefore GRANTED effective 3/27/26 (i.e., the date Mother filed the Request for Order).

4) In accordance with the XSpouse report attached hereto and incorporated herein, Respondent shall pay Petitioner $1,891 in guideline monthly child support by the 1st of every month commencing 6/1/26.

5) The XSpouse report is based on the following findings:

a. Per Petitioner's Income and Expense Declaration filed 3/19/26, Petitioner receives $1,950 in monthly unemployment.

b. Per Respondent's Income and Expense Declaration filed 5/14/26, Respondent: (a) earns $5,000 in average monthly income and $1,481 in average monthly self-employment

1 income; (b) pays $500 in average monthly health insurance premiums; and (c) pays $957
2 in property taxes and $1,250 in deductible interest expenses.

3 6) The Court reserves jurisdiction over:

- 4 a. The child support order retroactive to 1/24/25 (i.e., the filing date of the petition);
5 b. Any child support arrears Respondent may owe to Petitioner;
6 c. Respondent's request the Court issue a seek work order on Petitioner;
7 d. Respondent's request for imputation of minimum wage income to Petitioner; and 8 e. Petitioner's request for allocation of Family Code section 4062 and 4063 costs pursuant 9 to Family Code section 4061.

10 7) Counsel for Petitioner shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

11 8) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 12 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
13 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
14 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 15 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 16 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 17 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
