Courtroom #1: Judge J. Omar Rodriguez

FL-10-00471 Bladow, Jacqueline vs. Bladow, Kevin

The review hearing and trial setting hearings currently scheduled for September 9, 2026, shall be continued to September 23, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. to be heard along with Respondent's Motion to Compel.

FL-25-00235 Flores, Marina vs. Flores, Gary Matthew

Petitioner's unopposed Request for Order filed August 3, 2026, to Compel Discovery Responses, Production and Requests for Sanctions is GRANTED.

A party to whom interrogatories or a demand for production is directed must serve a response within 30 days after service of the discovery. (Code of Civ. Proc. §§ 2030.260, 2031.260. Failure to serve a timely response results in waiver of all objections, including claims of privilege and work-product protection. (Code of Civ. Proc. §§ 2030.290(a), 2031.300(a).) Here, more than thirty (30) days elapsed between April 15, 2026, and Respondent still has not provided complete responses as of the filing of this Motion. All objections are waived.

Code of Civil Procedure section 2023.020 provides that the court shall impose a monetary sanction ordering any party who fails to confer as required to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by anyone as a result of that failure.

Respondent shall provide complete responses to Petitioner's: 1) family law form interrogatories set no. 1 interrogatories 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, and 21; Request for Production of Documents set no. 1, document request 2, 3, 5, and 6. The responses shall be without objection and served within 10 days after service of the order issued.

Respondent shall pay monetary sanctions to Petitioner in the amount of $3,000.00 within 30 days after service of the order issued.

FL-26-00094 Garza, Joshua Applegate vs. Infante, Santana

In light of the related juvenile court proceedings, the request for order is DENIED as this court lacks jurisdiction to make any orders regarding custody and visitation.

FL-21-00161 Martinez, Flavia vs. Martinez Morales, Melchor

Petitioner's Request for Order, filed August 5, 2026, is DENIED. Petitioner's Request is based on the fact that she is no longer receiving child support.

The termination of a companion child support order due to a child turning 18 constitutes a valid legal basis to request a modification of a post-judgment spousal support order. (Cal. Fam. §4326.) However, to successfully modify the spousal support order on this basis, the requesting party must file the request no later than six months from the date the child support order terminates. (Ibid.)

Here, Petitioner states that the child support order expired in September 2025 when the parties' son turned 18. By that time, he had already graduated high school. Petitioner's current request was filed beyond the six-month window. Therefore, Petitioner's request for order for a modification of spousal support is denied as it is based solely on the basis that she is no longer receiving child support.

FL-25-00249 Spiess, Livia vs. Spiess, Hudson

Petitioner's Request for Voluntary Waiver of Respondent's Preliminary Financial Disclosure is GRANTED.
