Hrayr Parsadanyan v. FCA US LLC

The Court continues the discovery motions to November 2, 2026 at 9:00 a.m.

The IDC and supplemental filings do not clearly establish Plaintiff's specific arguments about each specific discovery item that remains deficient after further responses were served, and why. Accordingly, Plaintiff is to respond to Defendant's separate statement which argues the sufficiency of each discovery demand that remains at issue. Plaintiff's responsive separate statement should be filed by no later than October 2, 2026.

The final separate statement should identify and address each parties' position on each discovery request that remains in dispute.

The parties will discuss and set a trial date at the Trial Setting Conference on calendar for September 16, 2026.
