Court Reporting Services – The Court does not provide official court reporters in proceedings for which such services are not legally mandated. Parties are responsible for either making the appropriate request in advance or arranging for their own private court reporter. Go to <http://napacountybar.org/court-reporting-services/> for information about local private court reporters. Attorneys or parties must confer with each other to avoid having more than one court reporter present for the same hearing.

“Recording Court proceedings (whether by Zoom’s AI Meeting Summary functionality or by any other means) is PROHIBITED without express permission from a judicial officer. (Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 1.150(c) & (d))

REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING: After a review of the matter, the Court finds the Conservator is acting in the best interest of the Conservatee. Thus, the matter is set for a Review – Biennial hearing in two years, on September 19, 2028, at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. B. The Court Investigator shall prepare a biennial investigator report for the next hearing date.

The Court notes that the Conservator and Conservatee have moved to Corona, CA and, according to the court investigator's report, the move is permanent. Conservator is therefore directed to (1) review the venue transfer provisions of the Probate Code at sections 2210 et seq. and 2352, and (2) file a petition to transfer the conservatorship (Form GC-363) in compliance with those sections. Conservator is encouraged to reach out to the Self-Help center for any assistance. This matter is set for a Review Hearing to Confirm the Filing of a Petition to Transfer for October 29, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. B. The clerk is directed to give notice to the parties.

The Clerk is directed to send notice to the parties, along with a copy of this Minute Order.

City of Napa v. Brian R. Silver et al

25CV000143

CITY'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING: The Motion is DENIED.

The moving party failed to include in the notice of this motion proper notice of the Court's tentative ruling system as required by Local Rule 2.9. Moving party is directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the missing notice to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

A. NATURE OF MOTION

Pursuant to the moving papers, Petitioner City of Napa (City) moves, pursuant to Health and Safety Code sections 17980.7, subdivision (c)(11) and 17980.7, subdivision (d)(1), Code of Civil Procedure section 1032, subdivision (a)(4), and Napa Municipal Code sections 1.16.010-050, for an order: (1) Declaring that the parcel of real property known as 810, 814 and 816 Brown Street, Napa, California 94559, identified by Assessor's Parcel Number 003-222-011-000 (Subject Property) was substantially dangerous to the health and safety of residents and the public prior to the initiation of this action; (2) Declaring the City the prevailing party in this action; (3) Awarding the City its attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $20,040.08

($15,665.00 in attorneys' fees, $1,926.36 in litigation costs and $2,448.72 in City code enforcement costs), and Any further amounts the Court deems appropriate.¹

B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The instant Motion was originally set for hearing on July 28, 2026. On July 20, 2026, Respondent Brian Silver applied, ex parte, for an order continuing the hearing and resetting the deadline for filing opposition thereto. The Court granted the application, and on July 22, 2026, entered an Order in the form proposed by Mr. Silver. That Order provides that "The hearing on Petitioner City of Napa's Motion for Attorneys' Fees . . . is continued to August 20, 2026 . . . [¶] Respondent shall file and serve his opposition to Petitioner's Motion for Attorneys' Fees no later than nine (9) court days before the new hearing date, in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure section 1005(b)."

On August 17, 2026, Respondent, without further leave of Court, filed a 26-page Opposition with some 316 pages of exhibits attached thereto.

The matter came on for hearing on August 20, 2026. The Court heard from Mr. Silver regarding his untimely filed Opposition. The Court ordered the Opposition STRICKEN from the record. (See Minute Order of August 20, 2026.) However, the Court continued hearing on the instant Motion to this date and granted Mr. Silver leave "to file a code compliant and timely response." (Ibid.)

On September 4, 2026, Mr. Silver filed an Opposition to the Motion. While there is no proof of service of the Opposition in the file, the City acknowledges such service through its Reply.

While the City asks the Court to disregard the Opposition on grounds that it was filed and served one day late, the City does not contend, let alone show, that it has suffered any prejudice from the delay. Moreover, the City's Reply contains substantive argument addressing the points raised through the Opposition. For these reasons, the Court elects to consider the Opposition and the points raised therein.

C. ANALYSIS

Consequences of a property owner's failure to respond to local agency enforcement actions relating to a violation or public nuisance are governed by Section 17980.7. Among these, subdivision (c) provides for the appointment of a receiver. The statute further provides that "[t]he prevailing party in an action pursuant to this section shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and court costs as may be fixed by the court. (§ 17980.7, subd. (c)(11).)

An award of attorneys' fees under that section, however, is only available where a receiver has been appointed. "[S]ubdivision (11) – the provision regarding attorney fees to the prevailing party – is under (c). Subdivision (c) is limited solely to receivership proceedings. . . . Section 17980.7, subdivision (c) specifies that an enforcing agency 'may seek and the court may order, the appointment of a receiver for the substandard building pursuant to this subdivision. . . .’ Thus, this subdivision does not apply to every situation where a request for a receivership merely appears in the pleading. Rather, it applies when the party seeks and the court orders a receiver.” (City and County of San Francisco v. Ballard (2006) 136 Cal.App.4th 381, 401-402 (Ballard).)

As Mr. Silver argues, here, no receiver was appointed. Therefore, under the holding in Ballard, the Court is without authority to grant the City attorneys’ fees pursuant to Section 17980.7, subdivision (c)(11).

Similarly, Section 17980.7, subdivision (d)(1), provides that “If the court finds that a building is in a condition that substantially endangers the health and safety of residents pursuant to Section 17980.6, upon the entry of any order or judgment, the court shall . . . [o]rder the owner to pay all reasonable and actual costs of the enforcement agency, including, but not limited to, inspection costs, investigation costs, enforcement costs, attorney’s fees or costs, and all costs of prosecution.”

The Court has not made any findings in this action. As such, the City is not entitled to the costs of enforcement pursuant to Section 17980.7, subdivision (d)(1).

Through its Reply, the City argues, for the first time, that it is entitled to its costs and fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5. That statute provides that, in certain circumstances, “a court may award attorneys’ fees to a successful party against one or more opposing parties in any action which has resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the public interest” It provides, however, that “With respect to actions involving public entities, this section applies to allowances against, but not in favor of, public entities, . . . unless one or more successful parties and one or more opposing parties are public entities” (Ibid; see also City of Maywood v. Los Angeles Unified Sch. Dist (2012) 208 Cal.App.4th 362, 433, [reviewing legislative history of the statute].)

Mr. Silver is not a public entity. Therefore, the City is not entitled to an award of fees under Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

Based on the foregoing, the Motion is DENIED.

Metropolitan Wines LLC et al v. Allied World Assurance Company Inc. et al

24CV000739

APPLICATION TO CONTINUE TRIAL

APPEARANCE REQUIRED. Because the instant hearing is on a continued ex parte Application, it is not subject to Local Rule 2.9.

Based on the papers submitted by the Parties, the Court is inclined to DENY the Application.

Defendant Allied World Assurance Company (US) Inc. (Allied) applies, pursuant to California Rules of Court rules 3.1200 and 3.1332, Local Rule 2.5, subd. (A), and Code of Civil Procedure section 128 for an order continuing both trial dates in the action. Specifically, Allied requests that the Bench Trial of Allied Cross-Complaint, currently set for October 19, 2026, be continued to November 16, 2026, and that the Jury Trial of the claims of Plaintiff Metropolitan Wines LLC (Metropolitan', currently set for November 16, 2026, be continued to May 2027, or thereafter. Allied further requests that all discovery deadlines be reset to the continued trial dates.

The Court has a statutory “responsibility to eliminate delay in the progress and ultimate resolution of litigation, to assume and maintain control over the pace of litigation, to actively manage the processing of litigation from commencement to disposition, and to compel attorneys and litigants to prepare and resolve all litigation without delay, from the filing of the first document invoking court jurisdiction to final disposition of the action.” (Govt. Code, § 68607.) In fulfilling these responsibilities, the Court “shall...[a]dopt and utilize a firm, consistent policy against continuances, to the maximum extent possible and reasonable, in all stages of the litigation.” (Id. at subd. (g).) Therefore, a party moving for a continuance must show good cause requiring the continuance. (Ibid.)

“To ensure the prompt disposition of civil cases, the dates assigned for a trial are firm. All parties and their counsel must regard the date set for trial as certain.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1332, subd. (a).) Continuances are disfavored and the Court may only grant a continuance “on an affirmative showing of good cause requiring the continuance.” (See id. at subd. (c). Emphasis added.)

Allied contends that a continuation of the bench trial is required because of recent discovery, depositions, scheduled by Metropolitan. Allied fails to explain, however, why it will be prejudiced by this late discovery absent a continuance of the bench trial date. It is noteworthy that Metropolitan, the party seeking the late discovery, opposes continuing the bench trial. Moreover, the Court notes that it has already continued the trial in this matter twice, at Allied’s request.

In light of the foregoing, Allied fails to persuade the Court that a continuance of the bench trial is required.

Metropolitan does not oppose a continuance of the jury trial. However, it seeks to have it set in February, 2027, while Allied seeks a continuance to May, 2027. The Court is currently setting trials in September and October, 2027.

As the parties note, if the Court rules in favor of Allied at the bench trial, then no jury trial is required. Thus, the Court finds that the request to continue the bench trial is premature.

Based on the foregoing, the Court is inclined to DENY the Application, but without prejudice to the parties’ right to request, following the bench trial, an order continuing the jury trial on the same grounds raised through the instant Application and Opposition.
