

be based on detailed time records. (Crespin v. Shewry (2004) 125 Cal.App.4th 259, 272.) Absent detailed billing records, the court will deny the motion.

Plaintiff to submit billing records, with redactions if necessary, by October 30, 2026.

2.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                              | HEARING NAME                   |
|-------------|----------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| CVRI2304403 | KANDILIAN VS BMWNORTH AMERICA, LLC | MOTION FOR PROTECTIVEORDER |

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT, in part, as modified.

A Protective Order shall issue ordering as follows:

(1) If the deposition is to be conducted via Zoom, all individuals participating in the deposition are required to turn their cameras on and identify themselves for the record. “Participating” includes simply observing the deposition and not actively questioning the deponent. (2) Both sides are limited to no more than five (5) attorneys each at the deposition. (3) The Zoom link to be used shall be password protected.

3.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                              | HEARING NAME     |
|-------------|----------------------------------------|------------------|
| CVRI2304403 | KANDILIAN VS BMWNORTH AMERICA, LLC | MOTION TO COMPEL |

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT the motion. The deposition of Defendant’s expert, Travis Brown, shall go forward at a mutually convenient date within 30 days from today’s date. The deposition shall be subject to the protective order issued by the court today (supra).

4.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                                                                   | HEARING NAME              |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| CVRI2505351 | MOLINA VS GENERALMOTORS LLC, ADELAWARE LIMITEDLIABILITY COMPANY | MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS FEES |

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT Plaintiffs’ motion for attorney fees and costs in the reduced, reasonable amount of $8,190.99 ($7,140.00 in attorney fees plus $1,050.99 in costs), payable to Plaintiff’s counsel within 30 days.