REQUEST FOR ORDER REQUEST TO TRAVEL W/MINOR CHILD

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Miguel Angel Hernandez Lopez (Father) and Respondent Carolina Lopez Murillo (Mother) have one minor child together, Angel (DOB 10/16/2022, age 3). The parties were married on 2/14/2024 and separated on 5/1/2025. The parties have joint legal and physical custody of Angel on a 2-2-5-5- parenting time schedule.
- 2) On for hearing is Father's request to travel with Angel to Oaxaca, Mexico for 11/13/2026 to 12/18/2026. The parties attended mediation, and the Court has received a disposition report that sets forth the parties' respective positions regarding the Mexico trip. The Court has also reviewed and considered the parties' request and response.

B. Findings and Orders

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor child is the United States.

1 2) The Court finds it is in Angel's best interest to be permitted to travel with Father to Oaxaca,
2 Mexico for a period of up to 17 days in November and/or December 2026. For the trip to occur,
3 Father shall abide by the following orders:

- 4 a. At least 20 days before the start date of the intended travel, Father shall provide Mother
5 of written notification of travel information, as follows: (1) a copy of roundtrip flight
6 tickets that show the dates, times, flight numbers, and airlines of the flights; (2) lodging
7 information for the duration of the trip; (3) emergency contact information for the 8 duration of the trip.
- 9 b. During the trip, Mother shall be entitled to a phone or video call with Angel at least every 10 3 days. The calls are expected to be brief, approximately 5 or 10 minutes, given the 11 child's young age. The parties shall in good faith meet and confer regarding the dates and 12 times of these calls.
- 13 c. Within 3 days of the end of the trip, Father shall deliver Angel's passport to Room 402 of 14 the San Francisco Superior Court, 400 McAllister Street, San Francisco, for Family Court
15 Services to retain the passport. In the future, whenever a party wishes to take Angel on an 16 international trip, they will need to submit a written agreement or file a request for a
17 Court order in order to travel internationally with the child and to retrieve the child's 18 passport from Family Court Services.
- 19 d. Father shall ensure that Angel gets appropriate medical care during the trip. Father shall 20 keep Mother informed of any issues relating to Angel's health and welfare that may occur
21 during the trip, including but not limited to illness.
- 22 e. The trip shall be canceled or rescheduled if Angel becomes ill before the trip and a 23 medical professional recommends against travel. The parties shall in good faith work
24 together to reschedule the trip if necessary.

25 3) The parties shall not disparage each other within earshot of Angel.

26 4) The parties shall not speak to Angel about any issues relating to the family court proceedings.

27 5) All communication between the parties shall be respectful and peaceful.

28 6) All prior orders not in conflict with these orders shall remain in full force and effect.

REQUEST FOR ORDER: REQUEST TO SEAL THE PUBLIC RECORD OF THE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER CASE PURSUANT TO APPLICABLE CALIFORNIA LAW

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Ashley Cravens (Mother) and Respondent Elie Attya (Father) have one adult child, Songia, and one minor child, Gianna (DOB: 8/13/2015).
- 2) On 12/21/2022, pursuant to Father's agreement, the Court issued a 1-year Domestic Violence Restraining Order, which expired on 12/21/2023 (and was not renewed).
- 3) Now on for hearing is Father's Request for Order filed 7/20/2026 asking the Court to "seal the records in this matter from public access." In the alternative, Father requests that the Court "consider a narrower order limiting public access to the DVRO order and related records that appear in public searches." Father states that he complied with the terms of the DVRO while it was in effect and Mother did not request that the DVRO be renewed. Father states he is requesting sealing because he is concerned about future employment opportunities, professional reputation, and personal privacy. Father states, "Many employers and organizations conduct

1 background checks or online searches, and the existence of a DVRO record may be viewed
2 without the context that the matter involved an expired one-year order, that it was resolved by
3 agreement, and that there is no current order in effect.” Father also states, “Continued public
4 disclosure of these records causes unnecessary harm to my privacy and reputation.”

5 4) Attached to Father’s Request for Order is a declaration signed by Mother wherein Mother states,
6 “I support Respondent’s request that the court records be sealed, or that public access to the 7 records be limited...”

8 5) Per the Proof of Service filed 7/20/2026, Father’s Request for Order and related moving papers
9 were personally served on Mother on 7/20/2026.

10 B. Findings and Order

11 1) Under California Rule of Court, rule 2.550(d), “The court may order that a record be filed under 12 seal only if it expressly finds facts that establish: (1) There exists an overriding interest that 13 overcomes the right of public access to the record; (2) The overriding interest supports sealing the 14 record; (3) A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the 15 record is not sealed; (4) The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and (5) No less restrictive
16 means exist to achieve the overriding interest.”

17 2) The Court also notes the case of Marino v. Rayant (2025) 110 Cal.App.5th 846, 864 wherein the 18 Court of Appeal found that a trial court properly denied a request to seal a case record in which a
19 civil harassment restraining order was granted and later terminated. In that case, the restrained
20 party argued that the potential harm to his reputation and future job prospects justified sealing the 21 record. The Court of Appeal agreed with the trial court’s denial of the request to seal, noting the 22 restrained party had failed to prove that the unsealed case record had caused him to lose job 23 prospects, particularly "when there could be other reasons unrelated to the restraining order for 24 why [restrained party] did not get the job."

25 3) The Court finds that the parties have not identified an overriding interest that overcomes the right
26 of public access to the records in this case, nor does the Court find that the parties have shown 27 that a substantial probability exists that any purported overriding interest will be prejudiced if the 28 record is not sealed.

29 4) Father’s request to seal records in this case is denied.

1 5) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
