

				b. End of Account. The market value on the Amended Account filed within the Supplement appears to be incorrect. The Court will interlineate the carry value to be the market value on each asset on hand item. 2. Bond is recommended to be set at $53,997.42. This is higher than requested in the Petition, as it includes the $19,381.38 loan that is an asset of this estate pending repayment. The current bond is $34,896.40, per the Dec. 17, 2024 order of this Court. Thus, an increase in bond of $19,101.02 is needed. A OSC re: Bond will be set for February 5, 2027 at 9:00 a.m. in P2. 3. Attorney fees. This Court does not have ongoing jurisdiction over the Trust, as 23PR-0107 has been closed after the June 27, 2025 Order. As such, this Court cannot order the Trust to pay fees as requested. It is noted the Petitioner is also the Trustee of the Trust and the Trust is not Court supervised. 4. A revised Order is needed. 5. The Third Account, for the period of August 15, 2025 to August 14, 2027 is due by October 8, 2027.
9	24PR-0359	In Re: Camila Mazon	Motion Filed 04/23/2026 - For Order Amending Order Approving Compromise of Claim	DENIED LIST: The request to nunc pro tunc the July 22, 2025 order, does not appear appropriate based on the applicable law and facts in this matter. The Court ruled on the underlying Minor's Compromise Petition (Petition), which was filed on October 30, 2024, nearly 8 months and four hearings later, on July 11, 2025. The order was reduced to a

			written order on July 22, 2025 (Order) based on the prayer of the Petition and the numerous hearings discussing allocation of the total represented settlement to this minor of $999,865.00. The Defendant's attorney assisted in the preparation of the Petition, which omitted necessary information, leading to continuances and eight additional filings totaling over 1,800 pages. The Petition called for an annuity purchase and use of a pooled trust. Unfortunately, the exact allocation of the $999,865 was not fully disclosed in the original Petition. The allocation of funds, outside of the annuity, was discussed at length due to the numerous omissions in the Petition. The Defendant, now the moving party, was not present at any of those hearings. Once determined over the hearings noted above, the use of a pooled trust account was withdrawn by the Petitioner, replaced by a blocked account and cash payments. On July 11, 2025 at the final of the four hearings to settle the Petition, the Court approved the settlement of $999,865.00 and ordered $799,740.86 to an annuity, $185,125.00 to a blocked account, and $15,000 to be paid to the minor's mother directly, for ongoing medical expenses. The minor, Camila Mazon, turned 18 on February 4, 2026, rendering the need for a blocked account moot. This Motion advises that when processing the Order, Defendants discovered the annuity purchase cost rose to $799,990.00. They also discovered other payments they had made to other injured persons came from Camila's $15,000 cash allocation. The moving party, through this Motion, now asks this Court to approve a smaller settlement to Camila, in the amount of

			$994,362.37. This would change the Court's order by $5,502.63 ($999,865 to $994,362.37). A nunc pro tunc order is only applicable to correct a clerical error by placing on the record what was actually decided by the court by incorrectly recorded. (Hamilton vs. Laine (1997) 57Cal.App.4th 885, 891.) It is not used to determine a new order. (Id.) In this matter, the Court ruled on the Petition and Declaration/ Supplements it had before it on July 11, 2025, reduced to writing on July 22, 2025. At that hearing, though the Petition, this Court was tasked with approving the settlement tailored specifically as to Camila Mazon and her injuries. The moving party's arguments that the Court was somehow approving the allocation of the policy limits to all parties, and this is just a reorganization of those policy limits, is unsupported. The entire goal of a Minor's Compromise is to approve a specific amount going to a specific minor based on their injuries. Allocation and policy limits are factors, but the Court is focused on the particular minor in each Petition. This was the approach on this matter, when the Court made the July 22nd order agreeing to the total settlement of $999,865.00 as always presented via the Petition. The purported unsigned settlement agreement attached as Exhibit B to the Motion is a new agreement. It is not what the Petition requested nor was it presented with this Court for approval.

				Based on the above, this request cannot be a nunc pro tunc order. The Court cannot correct something that was never presented prior to or at the hearing. Rather, this is a request to modify the settlement to another settlement. The motion is denied.
