APPEARANCE ORDERED (Zoom allowed)

Counsel to appear to discuss concerns over the longevity of funds available in the Trust, which have not been addressed. The Court is mindful that the Conservatorship estate has decreased significantly, but it appears that the Trust is financially secure. At Conservatee's age, the Court needs further information as to whether or not there truly is a risk of the longevity of the funds for support of the Conservatee, be it through the conservatorship estate or the trust.

The Court previously denied the Second account and report, and request for fees. The denial was rooted in the request for fees, not the accounting itself. Petitioner should be prepared to address the concerns raised in the email from independent counsel 11/14/2025. These concerns are also set forth in independent counsel's report to the court, and include the following:

Ms. Dolch is requesting fees in both roles, trustee and conservator, in the amount of $51,680. The trust accounting disbursement schedule shows four payments to Ms. Dolch, totaling $6,232.50. It is not clear as to why Ms. Dolch paid herself four times and is now asking for additional fees. The four payments were made on April 24, 2023, July 14, 2023, November 17, 2023, and February 5, 2024. Ms. Dolch's invoice for trustee's services covers the period from April 4, 2023, through May 29, 2025.

Is the Petitioner intending to submit a revised fee request? If so, the Court would be prepared to address the Second Accounting anew. Finally the Court intends to decrease the bond on the Conservatorship estate to $216,000.
