

CV-26-007266 VALLIJO, MARYANN vs AMERICAN ADVANCED MANAGEMENT INC - Plaintiffs' Motion to Consolidate and Appoint Interim Co-Lead Counsel - HEARING REQUIRED.

County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 21

Hearing date: 2012-04-02

Motion: The Court needs compliance with Rule of Court 3.300 in all cases and to determine whether this is the correct venue. On September 4, 2026, Defendants filed a notice of related case in the Vallijo matter, identifying 11 related cases. The proof of service indicates service on Plaintiff Vallijo only. "The Notice of Related Case must be filed in all pending cases listed in the notice and must be served on all parties in those cases." (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.300.) On August 14, 2026, Plaintiff Vallijo along with the plaintiff in a related action (Williams v. Madera Community Hospital, et al., Case No. CV-26-007756), filed a motion to consolidate requesting (1) consolidation of their two cases under the first-filed Vallijo matter, (2) appointment of certain interim co-lead counsel, and (3) an order entering a proposed case schedule setting forth certain pleading deadlines. On September 3, 2026, Defendants filed a response. The response identified a third case in this Court for consolidation—Lisa Medina v. American Advanced Management, Inc. d/b/a Madera Community Hospital, Case No. CV-26-008023—and also identified nine additional related actions currently pending in Madera County Superior Court. Defendants request that any Court order regarding consolidation preserve Defendants' rights to seek transfer of the three actions in this Court to Madera County and/or coordination of all twelve actions. Once it is able to, the Court intends to informally confer with Madera County case judges. The following are the tentative rulings for cases calendared before Judge Stacy P.
