

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF VENTURA

Tentative Ruling

---

2024CUOR033199: SANDRA ALBERTS vs CLEMENT ALBERTS, et al.
09/17/2026 in Department 42
Motion to Tax Costs

Motion: Motion to tax costs

Tentative Ruling: The motion is granted in part. After taxing costs, the total costs awarded to Defendant = $1,820.00

Moving party to give notice.

Discussion:

Plaintiff seeks to tax four categories of costs claimed by Clement Alberts in his Memorandum of Costs. No Amended Memorandum of Costs has been filed.

$1, 595 – filing and motion fees.

The Court reduces these costs by $435, which was an amount included in error. Total costs allowed for filing and motion fees = $1160.

$3,967.10 – deposition costs

The specific deposition and corresponding costs were not identified at all in the Memorandum of Costs. There is no support for these costs, and they are therefore taxed in their entirety.

$,2446 – witness fees

No witnesses are identified and no costs are itemized. These costs are taxed in their entirety.

$2,112.07 – other

Defendants withdraw their request for $55.85 for Fed Ex and $973 for investigations. The travel expenses of $423.98 are not supported by reference to any particular deposition. The Court taxes $1452.83 of these costs, and awards “other” costs of $660.
