Case Number: 21SMCV01145 Hearing Date: September 4, 2026 Dept: I

The matter is here really for the motion for terminating sanctions. Defendants stated that if necessary, they would "swap" the five discovery motions set for today to get that heard. If the court has time, it can get to the motions to compel further. In general though, the court would hope that the parties would discuss the discovery issues further now that plaintiff has new counsel (assuming the case survives this motion).

As to the motion for terminating sanctions, the court issued a detailed tentative at the last hearing, so we can start from there.
