23FL0127

On November 13, 2025, Respondent filed a Request for Order (RFO) seeking sanctions and further sentencing for Petitioner's noncompliance with court orders. The RFO was served by mail on January 13, 2026. It appears the Notice of Posting Tentative Ruling was not served with the RFO.

The parties appeared for the hearing on February 26, 2026 at which time the court found improper service of the RFO. Because the RFO deals with failure to comply with an Order to Show Cause (OSC), the RFO must be personally served as would an OSC. The court granted Respondent's request to continue to allow for proper service.

The RFO and the February 26th Minute Order were personally served on Petitioner on March 24, 2026.

Petitioner has not filed a Responsive Declaration to Request for Order.

Respondent is seeking the following: (1) Petitioner to be found in noncompliance with his sentence issued at the March 12, 2025 hearing; (2) Petitioner to be found in violation of his probation; (3) further sentencing; and (4) Family Code § 271 sanctions. Of note, Respondent seems to be referencing Petitioner as "Respondent" in her moving papers.

The parties are ordered to appear for the hearing.

TENTATIVE RULING #6: THE PARTIES ARE ORDERED TO APPEAR FOR THE HEARING.

On February 25, 2026, Petitioner filed a Request for Order (RFO) seeking an order regarding community debts. He filed his Income and Expense Declaration concurrently therewith. All required documents were electronically served the same day as filing.

Petitioner filed another RFO on March 27, 2026 seeking sanctions. All required documents were mail served on April 6th.

Respondent filed and served her Responsive Declaration to Request for Order and her Income and Expense Declaration on May 11th. The court finds this to be late filed pursuant to Civil Procedure section 1005(b) which states all opposition papers are to be filed at least nine court days before the hearing date. Section 12c states, “[w]here any law requires an act to be performed no later than a specified number of days before a hearing date, the last day to perform that act shall be determined by counting backward from the hearing date, excluding the day of the hearing as provided by Section 12.” Cal. Civ. Pro. § 12c. Section 1005(b) in conjunction with Section 12c would have made May 8th the last day for filing the Responsive Declaration to Request for Order. As such, the declaration is late and the court has not read or considered it.

Petitioner is requesting an order directing Respondent to pay $18,120.75 to cover her portion of community debt. He states this is pursuant to the Marital Settlement Agreement of the parties. He further seeks $3,500 in Family Code § 271 sanctions.

After reviewing the moving papers as well as the stipulation of the parties filed with the court on November 24, 2025, it does appear that Respondent agreed to pay a portion of the community debt in the amount of $18,608.25. However, it is unclear from the MSA if Respondent is to pay that amount directly to Petitioner for Petitioner to pay the debts or if Respondent is to pay the debts directly. The MSA expressly retains the court’s jurisdiction over the issues. In light of the foregoing, Respondent is ordered to pay Petitioner $18,608.25. Petitioner is ordered to use these funds to pay of the community debts referenced in the MSA, if they have not already been paid. Respondent may pay Petitioner in one lump sum or in monthly payments in an amount agreed upon by the parties.

Petitioner has requested sanctions pursuant to Family Code section 271 which states, in pertinent part, “...the court may base an award of attorney’s fees and costs on the extent to which the conduct of each party or attorney furthers or frustrates the policy of the law to promote settlement of litigation and, where possible, to reduce the cost of litigation by encouraging cooperation of the parties and attorneys. An award of attorney’s fees and
