LOCKE, ET AL. VS. STERNBERG, ET AL.

Case Number: 23CV-0203172

Tentative Ruling on Application to Appear Pro Hac Vice: Boris Zhadanovskiy., an attorney admitted to practice law in the State of Florida, seeks admission pro hac vice in order to represent Plaintiffs Timothy Locke and Deborah Metzger. California Rule of Court, Rule 9.40 provides the procedural requirements for a pro hac vice application and requires a verified application with the following information:

- (1) the applicant's residence and office address;
- (2) the courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission;
- (3) that the applicant is a member in good standing in those courts;
- (4) that the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court;
- (5) the title of court and cause in which the applicant has filed an application to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and
- (6) the name, address, and telephone number of the active member of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record.

CRC 9.40(d).

Rule 9.40(c)(1) also requires service of the application on all parties that have appeared and on the State Bar. The State Bar also requires payment of a fee. The notice requirements of CCP § 1005 apply and proof of service in accordance with CCP § 1013a is required.

The Application is verified and contains all the information required by Rule 9.40(d). However, the Application was filed on March 26, 2025 for a hearing on April 14, 2025. This does not comply with CCP § 1005. Additionally, there is no proof of service indicating when and how all the parties who have appeared in the matter were served. The Court notes that the County of Shasta was recently added as a defendant and has sought an extension of time.

The Application is DENIED without prejudice. Plaintiffs submitted a proposed Order that will be modified to reflect the Court's ruling. In the alternative, Plaintiffs may appear and request a continuance of the hearing in order to provide proper notice.
