

“A motion for judgment on the pleadings performs the same function as a general demurrer, and hence attacks only defects disclosed on the face of the pleadings or by matters that can be judicially noticed.” (Cloud v. Northrop Grumman Corp. (1998) 67 Cal.App.4th 995, 999; see also Templo v. State of California (2018) 24 Cal.App.5th 730, 735 [motion for judgment on the pleadings is equivalent to a demurrer].) “[J]udgment on the pleadings must be denied where there are material factual issues that require evidentiary resolution.” (Schabarum v. California Legislature (1998) 60 Cal.App.4th 1205, 1216.)

Defendant contends that the prior class settlement in Rodriguez v. Central Valley Opportunity Center, Incorporated, Merced Superior Court Case No. 22CV-01358, bars this action based on res judicata. In support, Defendant requests judicial notice of certain documents, that if the truth or interpretation of the matter asserted therein is accepted, would prove Plaintiff’s claims are precluded. Of those documents, the truth and interpretation of the contents of Exhibits A, B, and E are disputed by Plaintiff. Further, the interpretation and legal effect of Exhibits C and D are also disputed by Plaintiff. These are factual disputes that require evidentiary resolution.

Here, accepting Plaintiff’s allegations as true, Plaintiff has alleged facts sufficient to constitute each cause of action. Plaintiff alleges he was employed through October 20, 2023. Plaintiff alleges he was a non-exempt employee entitled to wages, overtime, meal and rest period premiums, unreimbursed expenses, and penalties. Plaintiff alleges Defendant failed to pay all wages, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods, failed to pay final wages, failed to reimburse business expenses, and engaged in unlawful business practices. As Defendant’s evidence rebutting those allegations will not be considered for the motion for judgment on the pleadings as they require evidentiary resolution, those allegations are sufficient at this stage.
