3. S-PR-0011812 In Re the Conservatorship of Taylor, Susan C.

1st conservatorship account

Appearance is required for reset hearing on 1st conservatorship account.

Missing inventories and appraisals of all substantially all conservatorship assets. Conservator's argument that inventory and appraisal of property received after the death of conservatee's husband is not required is incorrect. Prob.C. § 2613 plainly requires the inventory and appraisal of "any property of the . . . conservatee [later] discovered that was not included in the inventory, or . . . any other property is received by the . . . conservatee or by the . . . conservator on behalf of the . . . conservatee . . ." Prob.C. § 2613 (emphasis added). In all such cases, the "conservator shall file a supplemental inventory and appraisal for that property . . ." Id. Conservator offers no legal authority excusing the failure to inventory almost the entirety of the estate. Court determination is needed as to whether required I&As should be filed in light of the waiver of final account by conservatee's apparent successor in interest.

Beginning property on hand balance stated in the account ($54,678.34) conflicts with the sole inventory and appraisal ($400.05). First account beginning property on hand must be supported by inventories and appraisals. See Prob.C. § 1061(a)(1). The discrepancy was not explained in conservator's response to calendar notes. Court determination is needed as to whether revised account should be filed in light of the waiver of final account by conservatee's apparent successor in interest.

Conservator's response to notes does not offer any legal or factual justification for failure to marshal assets and accounts by correctly titling them in the name of conservatee. Court determination is needed as to whether further action by conservator should be required in light of the waiver of final account by conservatee's apparent successor in interest.

2d / final conservatorship account

Appearance is required for hearing on 2d conservatorship account.

Final account was waived by conservatee's apparent successor in interest.

Appearance is required for hearing on petition for appointment of joint limited conservators of the person and estate.

Missing 15 days' service of notice of hearing with copy of the petition to all grandparents of proposed conservatee. Missing identification of and address(es) all grandparents in ¶ 11. Court determination is needed as to implied request to waive notice to grandparents in Mexico. Petitioner offers no legal or factual support for the request to waive the notice requirement.

9. S-PR-0014265 In Re the Conservatorship of Do, John Quoc Phong

Appearance is required for hearing on petition for appointment of limited conservator of the person and estate.

Court determination is needed as to all requested estate powers. Limited conservatorship of the estate requires the petitioner and the court order to specify each property to be marshaled and managed by conservator, as well as all other items in Prob.C. § 1830(b). Estate powers are only granted to the extent "specifically and expressly provided by the order appointing the limited conservator[s]." Prob.C. § 2400(a). See also §§ 2401(a) & 2405(a). Petitioner offers no legal or factual reason why specific language should be ordered with respect to becoming a representative payee (a determination made solely by the applicable agency) or acting as agent or advocate for conservatee. The request for authorization to marshal and manage "all manner of contrac[s]" and "all manner of claim[s]" does not appear to satisfy the requirement to specify properties and debts to be managed.
