APPEARANCE OPTIONAL (Zoom allowed)

The petition is rife with confusing errors as to which of the three accounts is being described in paragraphs 16 through 18. Petitioner has repeatedly mislabeled which account covers which time frame; moreover, the petition identifies the Fourth account in every period of accounting offered.

For example, paragraph 16 begins with "A true and correct copy of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Account And Report Of Trustee for the period July 1, 2021 through December 31, 2022." Are all three accountings for that 18-month period?

Then at 16 a) it reads “Trust Estate on Hand at Commencement of Fourth Accounting Period... total Trust Estate on hand as of July 1, 2021, the commencement of the accounting period covered by the Trustee’s Fourth Account

This begs the question: what period begins with July 2, 2021: is it the Third? Fourth? Fifth?

More confusion ensues with 16 h) which begins “Property on Hand at End of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of December 31, 2022, the end of the third accounting

Again the question is: is it the Third or Fourth accounting which ends on December 31, 2022?

The Fourth Accounting makes another appearance at paragraph 17, which begins, “A true and correct copy of the Fourth Account and Report of Trustee covering the period from January 1, 2023 to June 30, 2025 is attached as Exhibit “M” Here the court is informed that the Fourth Account, rather than beginning July 1, 2021, actually begins January 1, 2023. The petition, however, contradicts itself immediately thereafter, providing yet another time period for the elusive Fourth Account.

Paragraph 18 does not escape reference to the Fourth Account either, for it reads as follows, in part:

18. A true and correct copy of the Fifth Account And Report Of Trustee covering the period from July 1, 2025 to November 30, 2025 is attached hereto as Exhibit “N”

18a) Trust Estate on Hand at Commencement of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of July 1, 2025, the commencement of the accounting period covered by the Trustee’s Fifth Account and Report, consisted of assets with a value of $1,167,173.80, as set forth on page 2 of Exhibit “N”.

18 h) Property on Hand at End of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of November 30, 2025, the end of the fourth accounting period, is comprised of assets having a total carry value of $1,181,203.11, and a total market value of $1,181,203.11 as described on Schedule F of Exhibit “N”.

Petitioner is ordered to file within 30 days a supplemental to its petition which correctly sets out which of the three accounts is covering which accounting period. The fact that the attorneys and trustee presumably read this portion of the petition is disconcerting in that no one caught this mass of confusion. The Court encourages petitioner and counsel to better proof-read before filing future pleadings. The court is not going to require an amended petition for approval, but just a supplement which fixes these obvious errors.

Cindy Johnson has filed an objection to the petition, but has not stated with specificity what her objection is based on. The Court orders her to file a supplemental within 45 days which specifically describes what she refers to as "several misconducts of the Scott Trust"

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

An amended petition was filed after the Court, at the last hearing, pointed out numerous procedural defects. The Amended Petition is also problematic. Petitioner has indicated it is both a petition to probate a will, and that a personal representative is sought because the decedent died intestate. It is one or the other, not both.

The petition lists at attachment 8 three persons, who have filed waiver of bonds, but there is no information as to who they are or how they are legal heirs, as none of the potential relationships are explained as set forth in Item 8, which reads: Listed on the next page are the names, relationships to decedent, ages, and addresses, so far as known to or reasonably ascertainable by petitioner, of (1) all persons mentioned in decedent's will or any codicil, whether living or deceased; (2) all persons named or checked in items 2, 5, 6, and 7; and (3) all beneficiaries of a trust named in decedent's will or any codicil in which the trustee and personal representative are the same person.

The Court advised counsel that re-publication would not be required, but that did not dispense with legal notice and proof thereof to heirs. No proof of service is provided. Counsel is to address these deficiencies at the hearing.
