Santiago v. FCA US LLC

25STCV19347

Defendant's Demurrer to Complaint

Defendant's Motion to Strike

Tentative Ruling

Before filing a demurrer or motion to strike, the parties must "meet and confer in person, by telephone, or by video conference." (Code Civ. Proc., § 430.41, subd. (a) & § 435.5, subd. (a).) This requirement has not been satisfied. (Lopez Decl., ¶ 2-5.)

This same demurrer and motion to strike was previously scheduled for hearing on May 4, 2026. At that time, the Court noted that failure to meet and confer, continued the hearing, ordered the parties to meet and confer, and ordered Defendant's counsel to file a declaration regarding compliance with the statutory meet-and-confer requirement by no later than seven days before the hearing.

No such declaration has been filed.

The Court CONTINUES the hearing for at least 30 days, to a date and time convenient for the Court and the parties.

The Court ORDERS the parties to meet and confer as required by statute by no later than July 23, 2026.

The Court ORDERS Defendant's counsel to file a declaration regarding compliance with the meet and confer requirement by no later than seven days before the new hearing date.

The Court also SETS an Order to Show Cause Regarding Why Defendant's Counsel of Record Matthew Clarke Wolf Should not be Subject to Monetary Sanctions in an Amount of up to $500 for violating the Court's order dated May 4, 2026. The Order to Show Cause is set for hearing on the same date and time as the continued date and time for the hearing on the demurrer and motion to strike. Any response to the OSC must be in writing and must be filed at least seven days prior to the OSC hearing date.
