16-PRO-00117	Conservatorship of KAREN SUE JACOBSON	SEVENTH TRUST ACCOUNT etc.
Line 1	Proposed Conservatee: JACOBSON, KAREN SUE Petitioner: CHOWDHURY, AL (PACKARD, DAVID R.) Conservatee: JACOBSON, KAREN SUE Conservator: CHOWDHURY, AL (PACKARD, DAVID R.) Sister: Jacobson, Andrea	Petition Hearing

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

Having reviewed the July 2, 2026 amended exhibit and declaration of Conservator/Trustee, the Court is concerned about the potential waste to the and trust as a result of the Conservator/Trustee to continue to insist on seeking payment, as fees commensurate with a professional fiduciary, for work which is either duplicative of others involved in the care of Ms. Jacobsen or work which should be attributed to others, not to a fiduciary. Petitioner, even after agreeing to lower his rates depending upon the type of work he claims, is still seeking more than $111,000 combined. That is simply excessive and unsupported. Moreover, he offers no meritorious reason as to why he is using his personal credit card for purchases and then seeking reimbursement, rather than simply using the estates funds for payment at the time of purchase. As fiduciary, he has had the power to open bank accounts and or credit cards on behalf of the trusts. The fact that he pays an $800 annual fee for the premier Chase credit card he utilizes suggests that he is enriching himself through benefits earned on that premier card, which is a breach of his fiduciary obligation to the Conservatee. The Petition is GRANTED as modified, with fees reduced to $30,000 from the trust and $50,000 from the conservatorship, for a total of $80,000. The Court hereby removes Mr. Chowdhury as the conservator and Trustee and appoints a fiduciary from the court's list. Mr. Chowdhury is ordered to turn over all materials and information belonging to the Conservatorship Estate and Trust within 10 days of notification of the identify of the new court-appointed fiduciary.
