

		specifying that error or irregularity at least three calendar days prior to the date for which the deposition is scheduled, on the party seeking to take the deposition and any other attorney or party on whom the deposition notice was served.” As discussed above, Defendants objected to the notices on the grounds they were unilaterally noticed and defense counsel and/or the witnesses were unavailable. (Byrne Decl., ¶ 3, Kim Decl., Exs. B, D.) As Defendants did not previously object on the grounds Plaintiff’s notices failed to specify a defendant or to comply with section 2025.230, those objections are waived. Under Code of Civil Procedure section 2025.450, however, a party may compel a deponent’s testimony if the deponent fails to appear “without having served a valid objection under Section 2025.410.” Though Plaintiff contends Defendants objections were made in bad faith, Plaintiff does not dispute they were timely served in response to each of the deposition notices and thus cannot rely on section 2025.450 to compel Defendants’ attendance. Moreover, to the extent Plaintiff relies on section 2025.480, that section applies where the deponent “fails to answer any question or to produce any document, electronically stored information, or tangible thing under the deponent’s control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena.” The motion “shall be made no later than 60 days after the completion of the record of the deposition, and shall be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040.” As no deposition took place section 2025.480 is also inapplicable.

The rule requiring a good faith effort to meet and confer about discovery disputes "is designed to encourage the parties to work out their differences informally so as to avoid the necessity for a formal order . . . [t]his, in turn, will lessen the burden on the court and reduce the unnecessary expenditure of resources by litigants through promotion of informal, extrajudicial resolution of discovery disputes." (Stewart v. Colonial Western Agency, Inc. (2001) 87 Cal.App.4th 1006, 1016.) "A reasonable and good-faith attempt at informal resolution entails something more than bickering . . . Rather, the law requires that counsel attempt to talk the matter over, compare their views, consult, and deliberate." (Townsend v. Superior Court (1998) 61 Cal. App. 4th 1431, 1439.)

BMW failed to participate in the meet and confer process in good faith.
