ANALYSIS:

In May 2017, the Court domesticated an Arizona judgment in favor of Maricopa Meadows Homeowners Association and against Deprece L. Reddick. Maricopa now moves for an award of attorney fees and costs incurred post-judgment.

Attorney fees are allowable as costs when authorized by contract, statute, or law. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1033.5, subd.
(a)(10).) Code of Civil Procedure section 685.040 entitles a judgment creditor to reasonable and necessary costs of enforcing a judgment, including attorney fees, if the underlying judgment includes a fee award. The judgment creditor may claim those costs through a noticed motion before the judgment is satisfied in full, but not later than two years after the costs have been incurred. (Id., § 685.080, subd.

Notice of Maricopa's motion was served properly on judgment debtor Reddick.

The judgment provides for “all costs and attorney fees incurred by [Maricopa] after submission of [the] judgment for entry by the Court in collecting the amounts listed in [the] Judgment.” The judgment has not yet been satisfied, and the fees and costs sought by Maricopa were incurred between June 30, 2024 and now.

The Court's objective is to award those fees at the fair-market value for the attorneys' work. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132.) That can be done by multiplying the number of hours the attorneys reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate. (Id. at p. 1132, 1134.) Maricopa seeks attorney fees based on its counsel, B. Austin Baillio's, hourly rate of $375.00 per hour from 2024 to 2025, after which the rate increased to $395.00 per hour, with some services performed for a flat fee; counsel Garren R. Laymon's work performed for a flat fee of $500.00; paralegal fees based on the hourly rate of $175.00 per hour for some of the paralegals and $185.00 per hour for others; and a $400.00 flat fee for the preparation of this motion. With his declaration, Baillio provides a ledger for this matter, with itemized hours demonstrating the specific tasks completed and the fees thereby incurred. In total, the ledger reflects $1,447.00 in fees, consisting of 4.6 hours of total work, including 0.4 hours for attending this hearing. Both the rates and number of hours expended are reasonable—minus the time spent remotely attending this hearing on an unopposed motion. The Court deducts that time, valued at $158.00, for total fee award of $1,289.00.

Maricopa also requests costs in the amount of $301.11, which includes electronic monitoring fees, filing fees, service fees, and background research fees. This amount is supported by the ledger provided by Baillio.

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Maricopa's motion for attorney fees and costs in the total amount of $1,590.11, comprising $1,289.00 in attorney fees and $301.11 in costs.

Maricopa is to give notice.
