Case Number: 25SMCV06284 Hearing Date: September 17, 2026 Dept: I

The court will inquire whether the parties can agree that service is complete as of today and that defendant will have 30 days to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint, thereby rendering the motion MOOT. The court suggests this because defendant is obviously aware of the case at this point, so the court sees little utility to forcing defendant to re-serve if the motion to quash has merit, and no harm in giving defendant 30 days from today if the motion to quash lacks merit.

If defendant will not so agree, the court will rule on the motion.
