This motion concerns a single document request served by claimant Edmond Margaryan ("Claimant"), which seeks "[a]ny and all DOCUMENTS involving ISO Claim searches conducted with regard to CLAIMANT." Claimant argues that respondent Mobilias Insurance Company ("Respondent") must provide a further response and that its objections are meritless.

A party that moves for an order compelling further response to a document request must "set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the discovery sought by demand." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.310, subd. (b)(1).)

The phrase "good cause" does not appear anywhere in Claimant's memorandum of points and authorities or separate statement. The only reference to "good cause" is in Claimant's reply brief, in which Claimant states that "Once [he] establishes good cause for the requested production, Respondent bears the burden of justifying its objections." (Reply, p. 8, citing Kirkland v. Superior Court (2002) 95 Cal.App.4th 92, 98.)

Accordingly, the motion and Claimant's request for sanctions is DENIED. No sanctions on Claimant are imposed for his unsuccessful motion because Respondent did not request any.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at ALHDEPT3@lacourt.org indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
