Counsel

for Plaintiff and Defendant are directed to meet and confer by telephone or video conference to resolve and/or narrow the scope of the issues addressed in the instant motions.

The Court strongly encourages Defendant Cassix to provide verified supplemental responses specifically stating that all responsive documents have been produced or, alternatively, to produce any documents relating to the subject transactions that have yet to be produced. The Court also encourages Plaintiff to be satisfied with representations that all documents have been (or will be) produced despite evidence that other documents should exist and to utilize depositions to explore apparent gaps in documentation of the underlying transactions.

The Court orders the parties to submit a joint brief as to any remaining issues in these motions by 10/09/2026.
