10	Dobson vs. Rao 30-2024-01436220-CU-FR-CJC	Motion for Summary Judgment and/or Adjudication Off calendar at request of moving party.
11	RDG Construction Services, Inc. vs. Gold's Drywall, Inc. 30-2023-01360563-CU-BC-CJC	Demurrer to First Amended Cross-Complaint Cross-Defendant/Plaintiff RDG Construction Services, Inc.'s Motion for Summary Adjudication as to the 4th Cause of Action of Cross-Complainant/Defendant Gold's Drywall, Inc.'s (Gold) Cross-Complaint is DENIED. RDG argues the 4th cause of action for recovery of the mechanic's lien release bond must be venued where the property subject to the mechanic's lien is located pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure, section 392. RDG presents no on-point decisional law requiring the result it seeks. This is not an action for mechanic's lien; it is an action for recovery of a release bond. "An owner of real property or an owner of any interest in real property subject to a recorded claim of lien, or a direct contractor or subcontractor affected by the claim of lien, that disputes the correctness or validity of the claim may obtain release of the real property from the claim of lien by recording a lien release bond. The principal on the bond may be the owner of the property, the direct contractor, or the subcontractor." (Civ. Code, § 8424, subd. (a).) A bond is subject to venue under Code of Civil Procedure, section 996.430, subdivisions (b), which provides, "If the bond was given in an action or proceeding, the action shall be commenced in the court in which the action or proceeding was pending. If the bond was given other than in an action or proceeding, the action shall be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction, and the amount of damage claimed in the action, not the
