

Specifically, this court found that the mailing address used by Plaintiff (Pleasant Hill) to provide notice of the Motion to Defendant was different than that where Plaintiff had served Defendant with process (Concord).

Plaintiff has filed proof of service, on 5/29/26, indicating that they have now provided notice of the 7/14/26, Motion hearing to Defendant at the Concord address, which is the same address as that where Defendant was personally served with process.

However, their proof of service only indicates that they provided Defendant with notice of the hearing, and not with a copy of the Motion.

Thus, there is no evidence that Defendant is aware of the contents of the Motion.

This Motion will be dropped.

CASE NAME: JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, N.A. VS. VERNELL MCCALL
MOTION HEARING/ MINUTE ORDER MTC RESPONSES TO REQ. FOR ADMISSIONS,
INTERROGATORIES, AND REQ. FOR PROD. OF DOCS
FILED BY: MCCALL, VERNELL

TENTATIVE RULING:

Any party contesting this tentative ruling must email Dept14@contracosta.courts.ca.gov and opposing parties by 4:00 p.m. on the court day prior to the hearing (7/13/26). If oral argument is requested, the requesting party shall specify the issues to be argued. If properly contested, the hearing will take place on 7/14/26 at 2:00 p.m.

Defendant has filed a Motion to Compel further discovery responses.

The Motion is unopposed, however, the Motion was originally scheduled for 4/21/26. On that date, this court found that Defendant had not provided any notice to the Plaintiff, and continued the matter to 7/14/26. This court also ordered Defendant to provide notice of the Motion and hearing date to Plaintiff.

There is no evidence that Defendant has provided this notice.

Disposition

This Motion will be dropped.
