Preliminary

Approval of Class Action Settlement

Department SSC-11

Coulter, et al. v. Center for Behavioral Change, Inc.

Case No. 23STCV23416

c/w 24STCV11665

Hearing: July 14, 2026

TENTATIVE RULING

Prior to approval being granted, counsel need to address the following:

1.

Counsel

represents that a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records was obtained from Defendant. (Yslas Decl., ¶16.) Is the sample is statistically reliable?

2.

The incentive award requested herein seems excessive.

3.

Paragraph 11.1 contains the following typo: "If, for any reason, the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval, or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reason, Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Actions, and Plaintiffs reserve the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses." (§11.1) It seems this should say "does not" instead of "does".

Notice: Make it clear in the Notice that Responses can be faxed and emailed as well as mailed to the Administrator.

BACKGROUND

This is a wage and hour class action. On September 27, 2023, Plaintiff Aretha Coulter filed this putative class action against Defendant Center for Behavioral Change, Inc. ("Defendant") alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices ("Class Action").

On March 5, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated.

On May 9, 2024, Plaintiff filed a separate action against Defendant for civil penalties under PAGA, in the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, Case No. 24STCV11665 ("PAGA Action").

On December 4, 2024, the Class Action and PAGA Action were consolidated, with the Class Action designated as the lead case.

Counsel represents that prior to attending mediation, the parties engaged in investigation and informal discovery wherein the data and documents produced by Defendant included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the PAGA Period, the average rate of pay, documents concerning Plaintiffs, Defendant's written wage-and-hour policies, and a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records. It is further represented that Plaintiffs' Counsel engaged an expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks associated with each claim meriting reductions in the likely success at class certification and likely recovery at trial.

On August 22, 2025, the Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with the Hon. Amy D. Hogue (Ret.), and were able to reach an agreement. A fully executed long form Settlement Agreement was filed with the court on February 4, 2026, attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of John G. Yslas ("Yslas Decl.").

Now before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement Agreement.

SETTLEMENT CLASS DEFINITION

"Class" means all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶1.5.)

o

"Class Period" or "Class Settlement Period" means the period from April 2, 2019 through the date of preliminary approval, or October 21, 2025, whichever date occurs first ("Settlement Class Period"). (¶1.13)

"Aggrieved Employee" means all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the PAGA Period. (¶1.4)

o

"PAGA Period"

means the period from March 5, 2023 through the date of preliminary approval, or October 21, 2025, whichever date occurs first. (§1.33)

Based on a review of its records, Defendant represents there are 154 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 26,000 workweeks during the Class Period. (§4.1)

The parties agree to class certification for the purposes of settlement. (§11.1)

o Note: Paragraph 11.1 contains the following typo: "If, for any reason, the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval, or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reason, Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Actions, and Plaintiffs reserve the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses." (§11.1) It seems this should say "does not" instead of "does".

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The essential terms are as follows:

The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $520,000, non-reversionary. (§3.1)

o Based on its records, Defendant represents there are 154 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 26,000 Workweeks during the Class Period. If, on final calculation, the total number of Workweeks is greater than 10% higher than 26,000 Workweeks (i.e. greater than 28,600 Workweeks), then the Gross Settlement Amount will be proportionally increased by the Workweeks worked in excess of 28,600 by multiplying the excess Workweeks by the per Workweek value. If this provision is triggered so as to increase the Gross Settlement Amount, the Parties agree that the portion of the Gross Settlement Amount allocated to attorneys' fees will increase proportionally such that the total amount of attorneys' fees remains one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount after the upward adjustment required by this provision is implemented. (§8)

The Net Settlement Amount ("Net") ($285,176.67) is the GSA minus the following:

- o Up to $173,333.33 (33%)

for attorney fees (§13.2.2);

- o Up to $22,000 for

litigation costs (Ibid.);

- o

Up to $10,000 for a Service Payment to the Named Plaintiff (§13.2.1);

- o Up to $6,990 for settlement administration costs (§13.2.3)

- o Payment of $22,500 (75% of $30,000 PAGA penalty) to the LWDA. (§13.2.5)

Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes owed on the wage portions of the Individual Class Payment. (§13.1)

Funding of Settlement: Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount and the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than fourteen (14) days after the Effective Date. (§14.3)

Distribution of the GSA: Within ten (10) days after Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment. Disbursement of the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment shall not precede disbursement of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments. (§14.4)

There is no claim form requirement. (¶3.1)

Participating

Class Member Payment: An Individual Class

Payment is calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Participating Class Member's Workweeks. (¶3.2.4) Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (¶3.2.4.2)

o Tax

Allocation: 20% as wages; 80% as interest and penalties. (¶3.2.4.1)

PAGA Payments: The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties of $7,500.00 by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each individual Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. (¶3.2.5.1) If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members. (¶3.2.5.2)

Tax Allocation: 100% penalties. (Ibid.)

· "Response Deadline" means forty-five (45) days after the Administrator mails Notice to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees and shall be the last date on which Class Members may: (a) fax, email, or mail Requests for Exclusion from the Settlement, or (b) fax, email, or mail his or her Objection to the Settlement. Class Members to whom Notice packets are resent after having been returned undeliverable to the Administrator shall have an additional fourteen (14) calendar days beyond the Response Deadline has expired. (¶1.44) The same deadlines applies to workweek challenges. (¶7.6)

Uncashed Settlement Checks: The Administrator will cancel

all checks not cashed by the void date (180 days after the date of mailing).

(¶4.4.1) For any Class Member whose Individual

Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and canceled after the Void Date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (¶4.4.3)

The settlement administrator will be Apex Class Action.

(¶1.2)

· Plaintiff filed the proposed settlement agreement with the LWDA on January 8, 2026. (Yslas Decl., Exhibit 4 thereto.)

· Participating class members, the named Plaintiffs, and the Declarants will release certain claims against Defendants. (See further discussion below)

ANALYSIS OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

1.

Does a presumption of fairness exist?

1.

Was the settlement reached through arm's-length bargaining? Yes. On August 22, 2025, the Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with the Hon. Amy D. Hogue (Ret.), and were able to come to an agreement. (Yslas Decl., ¶6.)

Were

investigation and discovery sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently?

Yes. Counsel represents that prior to attending mediation, the parties engaged in investigation and informal discovery wherein the data and documents produced by Defendant included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the PAGA Period, the average rate of pay, documents concerning Plaintiffs, Defendant's written wage-and-hour policies, and a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records.

(Id. at ¶9.) It is further represented that Plaintiffs' Counsel engaged an expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks associated with each claim meriting reductions in the likely success at class certification and likely recovery at trial. (Ibid.)

Is counsel

experienced in similar litigation? Yes. Class Counsel are experienced in class action litigation, including wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶22-35.)

4.

What percentage of the class has objected? This cannot be determined until the fairness hearing.

See Weil & Brown, Cal. Practice Guide: Civil Procedure Before Trial (The Rutter Group 2014) ¶ 14:139.18, ("Should the court receive objections to the proposed settlement, it will consider and either sustain or overrule them at the fairness hearing.").

CONCLUSION: The settlement is entitled to a presumption of fairness.

2.

Is the settlement fair, adequate, and reasonable?

1.

Strength of Plaintiff's case.

"The most important factor is the strength of the case for plaintiff on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in settlement." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130.)

Counsel

has provided the following exposure analysis:

$664,802.60

(Yslas Decl., ¶¶13-20.)

2. Risk,

expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation. Given the nature of the class claims, the case is likely to be expensive and lengthy to try. Procedural hurdles (e.g., motion practice and appeals) are also likely to prolong the litigation as well as any recovery by the class members.

3. Risk

of maintaining class action status through trial. Even if a class is certified, there is always a risk of decertification. (See Weinstat v. Dentsply Intern., Inc. (2010) 180 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1226 (“Our Supreme Court has recognized that trial courts should retain some flexibility in conducting class actions, which means, under suitable circumstances, entertaining successive motions on certification if the court subsequently discovers that the propriety of a class action is not appropriate.”).)

4. Amount offered in settlement. Plaintiffs’ counsel obtained a $520,000 non-reversionary settlement. This is approximately 9% to 78% of the estimated recovery which, given the uncertain outcomes, is within the “ballpark of reasonableness.”

The $520,000 settlement amount, after reduced by the requested deductions, leaves approximately $285,176.67 to be divided among approximately 154 class members. Assuming full participation, the resulting payments will average approximately $1,851.80 per class member. [$$285,176.67/154 = $1,851.80$]

5. Extent of discovery completed and stage of the proceedings.

As indicated above, at the time of the settlement, Class Counsel had conducted sufficient discovery.

6. Experience and views of counsel. The settlement was negotiated and endorsed by Class Counsel who, as indicated above, is experienced in class action litigation, including wage and hour class actions.

7. Presence of a governmental participant. This factor is not applicable here.

8. Reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. The class members' reactions will not be known until they receive notice and are afforded an opportunity to object, opt-out and/or submit claim forms. This factor becomes relevant during the fairness hearing.

CONCLUSION: The settlement can be preliminarily deemed "fair, adequate, and reasonable."

3.

Scope of the release

Effective

on the date when Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows: (¶5)

All Participating

Class Members will release all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action, alleged or which could have reasonably been alleged based on the facts alleged in the operative Complaint, including but not limited to: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 1197.1); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 2802); (8) failure to produce requested employment records (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226, 432, and 1198.5); and (9) unfair business practices (pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.). The enumeration of these specific claims shall neither enlarge nor narrow the scope of res judicata based on the claims that were asserted in the Action or could have been asserted in the Action based on the facts and circumstances alleged in the Complaint. The Released Class Claims are those that accrued during the Class Period. (¶15.2)

All Aggrieved Employees will release all claims for PAGA civil penalties that are alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the operative Complaint and in Plaintiff's March 5, 2024 PAGA Notice, including but not limited to: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 1197.1); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 210, 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 210 and 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 and 213(d)); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226 and 226.3); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 2802); (8) failure to produce requested employment records (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226, 432, and 1198.5); (9) failure to pay all earned wages twice per month and unlawfully withholding accrued wages (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210 and 216); (10) failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 1174, and 1174.5); (11) recordkeeping requirement violations (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.6, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1198 and 1199); (12) willful misclassification (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 226.8); (13) retaliation (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 1102.5); and

(14) civil penalties for wage and hour violations (pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 558). The Released PAGA Claims are those that accrued during the PAGA Period. (¶5.3) will also provide a general release and CC § 1542 waiver. (¶5.1) 4.

Named Plaintiff

May conditional class certification be granted?

Standards

A detailed analysis of the elements required for class certification is not required, but it is advisable to review each element when a class is being conditionally certified (Amchem Products, Inc. v. Winsor (1997) 521 U.S. 620, 622-627.) The trial court can appropriately utilize a different standard to determine the propriety of a settlement class as opposed to a litigation class certification. Specifically, a lesser standard of scrutiny is used for settlement cases. (Dunk at 1807, fn 19.) Finally, the Court is under no “ironclad requirement” to conduct an evidentiary hearing to consider whether the prerequisites for class certification have been satisfied. (Wershba at 240.)

a.

Numerosity. There are approximately 154 class members. (Yslas Decl., ¶10.) This element is met.

Ascertainability. The proposed class is defined above. The class definition is “precise, objective and presently ascertainable.” (Sevidal v. Target Corp. (2010) 189 Cal.App.4th 905, 919.) The class members are identifiable from Defendant’s records. (Yslas Decl., ¶10.)

c.

Community of interest.

"The community of interest requirement involves three factors: '(1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.'" (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435.)

Counsel contends that commonality is met because Plaintiff's claims present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment record production policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant's conduct was intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. (Yslas Decl., ¶11.)

Counsel contends that typicality is met because Plaintiff's claims and other Class Members' claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories. (MPA: 12:8-12.)

As to adequacy, Counsel contend that Plaintiff and her counsel will adequately represent the Class, as Plaintiff's interest are coextensive with the Class, and she is represented by adequate counsel. (MPA: 12:21-13:3; Declaration of Plaintiff Aretha Coulter, passim.)

Adequacy of class
counsel.

As indicated above, Class Counsel has shown experience in class action litigation, including wage and hour class actions.

Superiority. Given the relatively small size of the individual claims, a class action appears to be superior to separate actions by the class members.

CONCLUSION: The class may be conditionally certified since the prerequisites of class certification have been satisfied.

Is the notice proper?

1.

Content of class

notice. The proposed notice is attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A. Its content appears to be acceptable. It includes information such as: a summary of the litigation; the nature of the settlement; the terms of the settlement agreement; the proposed deductions from the gross settlement amount (attorney fees and costs, enhancement awards, and administration costs); the procedures and deadlines for participating in, opting out of, or objecting to, the settlement; the consequences of participating in, opting out of, or objecting to, the settlement; and the date, time, and place of the final approval hearing. [Make it clear in the Notice that Responses can be faxed and emailed as well as mailed to the Administrator]

2.

Method of class

notice. Notice will be via direct mail. Not later than ten (10) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (§4.2) Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 (fourteen) days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail, the Class Notice. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database. (§7.4.2) Not later than five (5) calendar days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time. (§7.4.3) If the Administrator, Defendant, or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class

Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than fourteen (14) days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later. (§7.4.5)

The Administrator will establish, maintain and use an internet website to post information including the Final Approval Order; and the Judgment. (§7.8.1) 3.

Cost of class

notice. As indicated above, settlement administration costs are estimated not to exceed $6,990. Prior to the time of the final fairness hearing, the claims administrator must submit a declaration attesting to the total costs incurred and anticipated to be incurred to finalize the settlement for approval by the Court.

Attorney fees and costs

CRC rule 3.769(b) states: "Any agreement, express or implied, that has been entered into with respect to the payment of attorney fees or the submission of an application for the approval of attorney fees must be set forth in full in any application for approval of the dismissal or settlement of an action that has been certified as a class action."

Ultimately, the award of attorney fees is made by the court at the fairness hearing, using the lodestar method with a multiplier, if appropriate. (PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22

Cal.4th 1084, 1095-1096; Ramos v.

Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 615, 625-626; Ketchum III v. Moses (2000) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-1136.) Despite any agreement by the parties to the contrary, "the court ha[s] an independent right and responsibility to review the attorney fee provision of the settlement agreement and award only so much as it determined reasonable." (Garabedian v. Los Angeles Cellular Telephone Company (2004) 118 Cal.App.4th 123, 128.)

The question of whether Class Counsel is entitled to $173,333.33 (1/3) in attorney fees will be addressed at the fairness hearing when class counsel brings a noticed motion for attorney fees.

Class counsel must provide the court with billing information so that it can properly apply the lodestar method and must indicate what multiplier (if applicable) is being sought as to each counsel.

Class Counsel should also be prepared to justify the costs sought (capped at $22,000) by detailing how they were incurred.

7.

Incentive Award to Class Representative

Settlement Agreement provides for an enhancement award of up to $10,000 for the named Plaintiff. In connection with the final fairness hearing, the named Plaintiff must submit a declaration attesting to why he should be entitled to an enhancement award in the proposed amount. The named Plaintiff must explain why he "should be compensated for the expense or risk she has incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class." (Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 806.) Trial courts should not sanction enhancement awards of thousands of dollars with "nothing more than pro forma claims as to 'countless' hours expended, 'potential stigma' and 'potential risk.'

Significantly more specificity, in the form of quantification of time and effort expended on the litigation, and in the form of reasoned explanation of financial or other risks incurred by the named plaintiff, is required in order for the trial court to conclude that an enhancement was 'necessary to induce [the named plaintiff] to participate in the suit'" (Id.

at 806-807, italics and ellipsis in original.)

The Court will decide the issue of the enhancement awards at the time of final approval.
