Motion: Proposed Intervenor Long Beach Public Transportation Company's Motion for Leave to File Complaint-in-Intervention

Moving Party: Plaintiff-in-Intervention Long Beach Public Transportation Company ("LBPTC")

Responding Party: None

Tentative Ruling

LBPTC moves the Court for an order permitting intervention as a party plaintiff.

LBPTC states that Plaintiff sustained personal injuries in the subject incident while acting in the course and scope of his employment with LBPTC. (Bustos Decl., ¶¶ 2-4.) LBPTC asserts that it has "become obligated to pay said EMPLOYEE certain sums of money for which INTERVENOR now has a subrogation claim pursuant to Labor Code § 3852." (Bustos Decl., ¶ 5.) No opposition has been filed.

LBPTC has demonstrated it is entitled to intervene in the instant action because it has paid workers' compensation benefits to and on behalf of Plaintiff for the injuries he suffered in the subject incident. (Code Civ. Proc., § 387, subds. (c) and (d)(1)(A); Lab. Code, § 3852.) LBPTC has also submitted a copy of its proposed complaint-in-intervention pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 387, subdivision (c).

LBPTC's motion for leave to intervene is GRANTED. LBPTC is to file its complaint-in-intervention within 20 days.
