and Confer: Yes. (Ardi Decl.)

BACKGROUND

This is a lemon law action. On June 17,

2025, Plaintiffs Gabrielle Ceja and Victor Manuel Sanchez-Sanchez filed a complaint against Defendant American Honda Motor Co., Inc. for various violations of the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act.

[Tentative] Ruling

Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel the Deposition of Defendant's Person Most Knowledgeable and Production of Documents is GRANTED.

discussion

Plaintiffs Gabrielle Ceja and Victor Manuel Sanchez-Sanchez move for an order striking Defendant American Honda Motor Co., Inc.'s objections and to compel (1) the testimony from Defendant's Person Most Knowledgeable ("PMK") pertaining to Matters for Examination 1 through 34, and (2) responses and production of documents to Plaintiffs' associated Request for Production of Documents, numbers 1-18 at the time of the PMK deposition.

Pursuant to CCP §2025.450, if after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action, without having served a valid objection, fails to appear for examination, or proceed with it, or to produce for inspection any document, the party giving notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document. (CCP §2025.450(a).) A motion to compel the deposition of a party to the action must be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration, or, when the deponent failed to attend the deposition, a declaration stating that the petitioner has contacted the deponent to inquire about the nonappearance. (CCP §2025.450(b)(2).)

Plaintiffs argue Defendant failed to provide a witness to a properly noticed deposition and failed to provide adequate responses to Plaintiffs' document requests, which seek documents relevant to the asserted Song-Beverly Act claims. Plaintiffs note Defendant, instead, asserted objections to Plaintiff's discovery. Defendant objected to a vast majority of matters for examination and requests for production of documents without substantive responses or any clear indication as to which matters for examination it is willing to produce a PMK witness upon.

AHM filed a declaration on June 22, 2026

attesting they have now agreed to a deposition date of August 28, 2026.

The court grants the motion to compel

AHM's PMK's deposition, to take place on August 28, 2026. With respect to the request for production, the court finds some of the objections to be boilerplate or inappropriate, while some are well taken. The court orders defendant to produce further responses and responsive documents within 30 days to the following requests: 3, 6, 7, 8-12, 17 and 18. The remaining requests are unreasonably overbroad or vague. Defendant does not need to provide any further response to the following requests: 1, 2, 13-16. For any documents withheld on the ground of attorney client or attorney work product privilege, defendant must list those documents on a code-compliant privilege log within 30 days.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiffs'

Motion to Compel the Deposition of Defendant's Person Most Knowledgeable and Production of Documents is GRANTED in part.
