DEPARTMENT 17

TENTATIVE RULING

LORI BRUMMEL

vs.

LIBERTY BEHAVIORAL & COMMUNITY SERVICES, INC.

Case

No.: 25STCV14113

Hearing Date: July 14, 2026

Plaintiff's motion to compel further responses to RFP Nos. 39 and 40 is GRANTED. In light of the circumstances, and given counsel's refusal to participate in the deception, Defendant is directly sanctioned $8,000, due within 20 days of entry of order.

On 5/14/2025, Plaintiff Lori Brummel
(Plaintiff) filed suit against Defendant Liberty Behavioral & Community

Services, Inc. (Defendant), alleging: (1) retaliation; (2) discrimination; (3) failure to prevent; (4) failure to engage in interactive process; (5) failure to provide reasonable accommodation; (6) wrongful termination; (7) intentional infliction of emotional distress; (8) negligent infliction of emotional distress; and (9) failure to provide employment records.

On 4/20/2026, Plaintiff moved to compel further responses to her Requests for Production (RFPs).

Discussion

Plaintiff moved to compel further responses to RFP Nos. 39 and 40.

In support, Plaintiff submitted evidence that Defendant has willfully suppressed evidence. This includes evidence that on 3/19/2026, Defendant's former counsel, Briana D. Williams, sent an email to Plaintiff's counsel making extraordinary admissions: (1) that responsive text messages between Ladale Jackson and Fredericka Ford exist but they have refused to produce them; (2) that Liberty is currently undergoing investigation for forging records produced in discovery; and (3) that Williams could no longer represent Liberty due to its noncompliance and ongoing refusal to engage in litigation.

Clearly, good cause exists to compel the production of records which are being wrongfully and willfully withheld.

In opposition, Defendant indicates that it has served verified responses and supplemental production of over 400 documents in response to Nos. 39 and No. 40, leaving nothing to compel. However, Defendant did not produce the mobile devices for examination, and the Court disagrees that such discovery is overly intrusive or extraordinary.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's motion to compel further responses to RFP Nos. 39 and 40 is granted. In light of the circumstances, and given counsel's refusal to participate in the deception, Defendant is directly sanctioned $8,000, due within 20 days of entry of order.

It is so ordered.
