Healthcare Services Group, Inc. v. G And E Healthcare Services, LLC, et al.

APPLICATION OF JOHN C. KILGANNON TO APPEAR AS COUNSEL PRO HAC VICE FOR PLAINTIFF HEALTHCARE SERVICES GROUP, INC.

MOVING PARTIES: John C. Kilgannon (as counsel for Plaintiff Healthcare Services Group, Inc.)

RESPONDING PARTY(S): None

STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS AND/OR PROCEEDINGS:

Plaintiff Healthcare Services Group, Inc. alleges defendants G And E Healthcare Services, LLC; Gem Healthcare, LLC; and GSM Healthcare Services, LLC, breached their respective Housekeeping/ Laundry Service Agreements.

Attorney John C. Kilgannon moves to be admitted pro hac vice as counsel for plaintiff Healthcare Services Group, Inc. No opposition was filed. [FN 1]

TENTATIVE RULING:

At the hearing, the moving attorney must confirm payment of the mandatory application fee to the State Bar of California. Assuming he has, the Application to be Admitted Pro Hac Vice will be GRANTED.

DISCUSSION:

Application for Admission Pro Hac Vice

A. Legal Standard

California Rules of Court Rule 9.40 provides that an attorney in good standing in another jurisdiction may apply to appear pro hac vice in this State by way of written application upon notice by mail to all interested parties, as well as service on the State

Bar in San Francisco with payment of a $50.00 fee, so long as that attorney is not a resident of California, does not work in California, and does not perform regular or substantial business, professional, or other activities in the State. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40).

The application must state: (1) The applicant's residence and office address; (2) The courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission; (3) That the applicant is a licensee in good standing in those courts; (4) That the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court; (5) The title of each court and cause in which the applicant has filed an application to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and (6) The name, address, and telephone number of the active licensee of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(d)).

B. Applications

Attorney John C. Kilgannon (Kilgannon) moves to be admitted pro hac vice as counsel for plaintiff Healthcare Services Group, Inc.

Based on the attorney's application, the attorney is not employed or residing within California (Kilgannon Decl. ¶¶ 4-5); the application contains the necessary addresses (Id. ¶¶ 4, 8.); the application has the proper admission information for other courts where the attorney is admitted (Id. ¶ 2); and the attorney is in good standing in those jurisdictions. (Id. ¶¶ 2-3.) Kilgannon is to be associated with local counsel John N. Tedford, IV of Levene, Neale, Bender, Yoo & Golubchik L.L.P.

In the preceding two years, Kilgannon has not applied to appear pro hac vice in California.

Considering the foregoing, Kilgannon is eligible to appear pro hac vice.

The application does not contain proof of payment of the mandatory application fees to the State Bar of California. At the hearing, the moving attorney must confirm payment. Assuming they have, the Applications to be Admitted Pro Hac Vice will be GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

FN 1 - Plaintiff served the application on Defendants electronically on May 19, 2026. (See 5/27/26 Proofs of Service.)

Any party may submit on the tentative ruling by contacting the courtroom via email at by no later than 4:00 p.m. the day before the hearing. All interested parties must be copied on the email. It should be noted that if you submit on a tentative ruling the court will still conduct a hearing if any party appears. By submitting on the tentative you have, in essence, waived your right to be present at the hearing, and you should be aware that the court may not adopt the tentative, and may issue an order which modifies the tentative ruling in whole or in part.
