Case #26CHCP00114

HEARING ON

CLAIMS TO DETERMINE DISBURSEMENT OF SURPLUS FUNDS

Petition filed 4/2/26.

On 4/2/26, Quality Loan Service Corp. (Petitioner) filed a Petition and Declaration Regarding Unresolved Claims and Deposit of Undistributed Surplus Proceeds of Trustee's Sale.

On 4/10/26, this Court entered an order to deposit surplus funds in the amount of $63,905.38 pursuant to Civil Code 2924j(c) and (d) and discharged Petitioner as Trustee.

On 5/15/26, the Court gave notice to all interested parties that a hearing on claims to determine disbursement of surplus funds was set for 7/14/26.

The funds are surplus funds after the 10/21/25 non-judicial foreclosure sale of property located at 9555 Woodman Avenue, Unit 11, Los Angeles, CA 91331 (the Property).

The Deed of Trust on the Property was executed by Jo Ann Tovar. After payment of the foreclosing beneficiary's unpaid debt, Petitioner identified two junior liens: (1) a deed of trust in favor of Bank of America, N.A. recorded on 5/4/07 and (2) a lien in favor of The Woodman VII Homeowners Association recorded on 3/15/13. After the foregoing junior liens are satisfied, Jo Ann Tovar, the owner of the Property just prior to the foreclosure sale is entitled to any remaining funds.

After providing notice, Petitioner received no claim from Bank of America, N.A. Since Petitioner was unable to determine how to distribute the remaining funds, it filed the instant petition.

On 6/16/26, The Woodman VII Homeowners Association filed a claim to $31,194.29 of the surplus funds on deposit based on delinquent homeowners association dues and fees related to the Property. No other claims have been filed.

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that The Woodman VII Homeowners Association is entitled to $31,194.29 of the funds on deposit to satisfy their lien.

The remaining $32,711.09 of the funds on deposit will escheat according to law.
