

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO
UNIFIED FAMILY COURT

HILL M PASHALIDES,

Petitioner

VS.

JEFFREY T PASHALIDES,

Respondent

) Case Number: FDI-20-793829

) Hearing Date: July 14, 2026

) Hearing Time: 9:00 AM

) Department: 404

) Presiding: AI MORI

REQUEST FOR ORDER FOR CHANGE OF CUSTODY, REITERATE EXISTING CUSTODY
ORDERS; SEE NO. 7; MOTION (FAMILY LAW GENERIC) CHANGE OF VENUE .

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Hill Pashalides (Mother) and Jeffery Pashalides (Father) have two minor children, Jason (DOB 3/29/2009, age 17) and Taylor “Pallas” (DOB 3/5/2012, age 14). Mother lives in Marin County and Father lives in Sacramento.
- 2) On 2/1/2024, the Court issued a Statement of Decision (SOD) after a long-cause hearing on custody and parenting time. This order provides for, in relevant part, joint legal and joint physical custody with parenting time for Father on the 1st, 3rd, and 4th weekends of each month.
- 3) On 2/13/2025, Mother filed a request seeking modification of the custody and parenting time order. Father opposed the request, stating there was no change in circumstances warranting modification. The parties agreed at mediation to modify the Summer 2025 schedule. After a hearing on 7/3/2025, Judge Anne Costin granted in part and denied in part Mother’s request, confirmed the order set forth in the SOD for the parties to attend co-parenting counseling, and ordered that neither parent shall suggest or discuss potential travel or events with the children that fall outside of their own respective custodial time.

4) Now on for hearing is Father's 3/6/2026 request seeking the following: (1) reiterate the existing orders on custody schedule changes and attending co-parenting counseling, as Mother repeatedly has violated orders on these matters; (2) enter as an order Father's proposed written policy documents (see Exhs. A & B); (3) order Mother to reimburse Father for his attorney fees in bringing this request; (4) order Mother to pay $5,000 in sanctions for each of the five times (see Exh. C) he believes she has willingly violated this Court's orders, or a sum of $25,000; and (5) provide Mother notice that a future sanction of $10,000 per violation will be imposed. Father states that Pallas (the younger child) attempted suicide after Mother's most recent violation of involving the children in unilaterally changing the custody schedule. Father states that Mother has also violated the order for the parties to attend co-parenting counseling.

5) Also on for hearing is Mother's 4/16/2026 motion to change venue to Marin County. Mother states both the children have gone through significant challenges, and that timeshare changes might result due to their preferences and other factors such as outpatient programs, college, and summer school. Mother states, based on the current situation, changing venue to the Marin Superior Court would reduce fees and stress and allow her to focus on the children. Mother has filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of her motion. She asserts, under Code of Civil Procedure sections 397(c) and 397.5, "the convenience of witnesses and the ends of justice would be promoted" by the change in venue to Marin County. Mother states the crucial "third-party percipient witnesses" are "teachers, experts, Pallas's crisis care, inpatient/outpatient treatment and healthcare providers, Jason's ADHD coach, therapist and college counselor, as well as the teenage children" in Marin County.

6) On 6/24/2026, Mother filed a response to Father's request in which she opposes his requests and disagrees with the statements he has made about co-parenting counseling and other matters. She states that co-parenting counseling is not necessary because she and Father have been able to effectively share custody. Mother states that Father does not carry the same burden she does in caring for the children, as he is a "weekend and summer parent." According to Mother, Father has been punitive when the children's choices "challenge his control"; she states Father should foresee that the 2024 and 2025 Court orders were made when the “children were younger, not high school students.”

- 7) On 6/30/2026, Father filed a response to Mother’s motion to change venue. He states he does not oppose the motion but would like his 3/6/2026 request to be adjudicated by this Court before the case is transferred.
- 8) On 7/7/2026, Mother filed a reply stating there would be confusion and conflict if this Court were to issue orders before the case is transferred. Mother asks the Court to deny Father’s request for co-parenting counseling, as Father’s goal appears to be “only to use the platform to criticize [her], not for parenting or to make decisions.”
- 9) On 7/7/2026, Father filed a reply stating Mother lacks authority to modify Court orders, especially the orders mandating co-parent counseling and the parents' collaboration in custody schedule changes.

B. Findings and Orders

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor children is the United States.
- 2) The Court hereby grants Mother’s motion to change venue to Marin County. Mother shall open a case in Marin County as soon as possible. Mother shall be solely responsible for any and all fees for opening a new case in Marin County and for any fees to transfer the case file to Marin County. A review hearing is set for Tuesday, 9/29/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404 for the sole purpose of determining Mother’s compliance with these orders. At least 10 calendar days prior to the next hearing date, Mother shall file and serve a declaration explaining whether she was able to transfer this case to Marin County and she shall attach documentary proof of her statements.
- 3) The Court finds it is in the children’s best interests to maintain all current orders pending the transfer. The parties are reminded that there are current orders in place, including orders for co-parenting counseling and other conduct orders, which they must follow until and unless they obtain a different order from the Court.

- 1 4) Father's requests for sanctions and other conduct orders are denied without prejudice to the filing
2 of such requests in Marin County once the venue transfer is complete.
- 3 5) Mother's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 4 6) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 5 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
6 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
7 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 8 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 9 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 10 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
- 11
- 12
- 13
- 14
- 15
- 16
- 17
- 18
- 19
- 20
- 21
- 22
- 23
- 24
- 25
- 26
- 27
- 28
- 29