OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Sheryl Yang (Mother) and Teddy Szeto (Father) have one minor child together, Grace (DOB 10/8/14, age 11).
- 2) On 5/18/2023, the parties agreed to share legal custody and for Father to have supervised visits through Rally Family Visitation Services (Rally). After several review hearings, the Court found on 5/30/2024 that Father had regularly and consistently visited Grace and that unsupervised visits was in Grace's best interests.
- 3) In a Findings and Order After Hearing (FOAH) filed 2/2/2026, the Court maintained Father's parenting time schedule of Tuesdays from 2:05pm to 7:30pm (pick up at school and drop off at Mother's home, curbside) and the first Saturday of each month from 10am to 5pm (pick up and drop off at Mother's home, curbside) in lieu of the first Tuesday visit of each month. After finding that the location restrictions that had been placed on Father's visits (i.e., in a public place or the paternal grandparents' home with a grandparent present), as well as the makeup visits for Father, were creating conflict between the parties, the Court temporarily lifted the location

1 restrictions and also ordered that pending a review hearing on 4/21/2026, there shall be no
2 makeup visits for missed or canceled visits. The Court ordered that Mother may cancel Father's 3 visits only in the event Grace is too ill to the point of having to miss school. The Court ordered
4 that Father shall continue to be permitted to communicate directly with Grace via text message,
5 and that Mother shall continue to be permitted to monitor and review the text messages.

6 4) In the 2/2/2026 FOAH, the Court expressed concern that Father may still be talking to Grace
7 about matters related to the family case and about the high conflict between the parties. The Court
8 reminded Father not to talk to Grace about the family law case and other specified topics and 9 ordered the parties to enroll in and attend coparenting classes and to ensure that Grace is enrolled 10 in and attends individual therapy.

11 5) A Tier II interview of Grace was conducted, and a report of the interview has been provided to 12 the Court and to the parties. Father filed a request to continue the 4/21/2026 hearing on the 13 ground that the parties did not timely receive a copy of the Tier II report, which left them with 14 insufficient time to meet and confer regarding parenting time. The Court has reviewed the parties' 15 declarations regarding the request to continue the hearing and hereby denies the request.

16 6) On 4/8/2026, Mother filed a declaration stating she completed the "Putting Kids First" parenting
17 program on 1/13/2026 and that Grace is attending therapy despite delays caused by Father's 18 uncooperative behavior. She states the parties' communication has been minimal and appropriate 19 since they began using Civil Communicator. She describes an incident that occurred on 20 3/17/2026, 6 days after Grace's Tier II interview, in which she was distressed for over 90 minutes
21 after a visit and was unable to do her school work because Father yelled at her in front of a friend
22 for doing her homework on the bed instead of at a desk. Father threatened to take away Grace's
23 phone and told her she needed to clean the cat litter even though she had homework to do. Mother 24 asks the Court to deny Father's request for expanded parenting time and to order instead that his 25 visits must be supervised. She also seeks sole legal custody based on Father's failure to 26 meaningfully engage in joint decision making; alternatively, she asks that she be permitted to 27 make unilateral decisions when she does not hear back from Father within 7 days. Mother states
28 that she plans to move to Foster City this summer with her husband and provided Father with 29 formal relocation notice, but has not heard back from Father.

1 7) On 4/16/2026, Father filed a declaration stating he completed the "Putting Kids First" parenting
2 program on 4/1/2026 and has enrolled in—and plans to complete—the Kids' Turn program on 3 6/8/2026. He states he did not object to Mother's proposed therapist for Grace and that visits have 4 been going well since the last hearing. Father disagrees with Mother's characterization of how the 5 3/17/2026 visit went. He states he did not yell at Grace; rather, he set boundaries and told her to 6 finish her homework and take care of a responsibility she had been putting off. He states he is 7 aware of Mother's plan to move to Foster City and states he is open and willing to engage in 8 discussions with her regarding this plan.

9 B. Findings and Orders

- 10 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
11 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in 12 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
13 child is the United States.
- 14 2) The Court finds it is in Grace's best interests to maintain the current custody and parenting time 15 schedule, with no modification at this time. Father is reminded not to talk to Grace about the 16 family law case or about Grace's sibling Pierce. The location restrictions on Father's visits remain
17 temporarily lifted, and there will also be no makeup visits for Father for any missed or canceled
18 visits. Mother may cancel Father's visits only in the event Grace is too ill to the point of having to 19 miss school. The parties shall continue to communicate only through Civil Communicator, and 20 only about the child.
- 21 3) Mother has indicated that she plans to move to Foster City this summer, in which case 22 modification of custody and parenting time may become necessary depending on the outcome of 23 any move-away request. Mother must file a move away request and obtain a Court order to move 24 with Grace, unless Father provides written consent to the move.
- 25 4) The parties shall meet and confer, through counsel, regarding any modifications to custody and 26 parenting time, including regarding Mother's plan to move to Foster City with Grace.
- 27 5) All prior Court orders not in conflict with these orders remain in full force and effect.
- 28 6) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

REQUEST FOR ORDER FOR CHANGE OF CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION (PARENTING TIME), CHANGES TO PARENTING PLAN

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Chasen Paul David Gonzales (Father) and Chipongolo Mulenga (Mother) have one minor child together, Ethan (DOB 7/22/2023, age 2). Father lives in San Francisco; Mother lives in Walnut Creek. On 12/4/2024, a 4-year Domestic Violence Restraining Order (DVRO) was issued against Father, protecting Mother, and the parties agreed this triggered the presumption against custody for Father under Family Code section 3044 (the 3044 presumption).
- 2) In a Findings and Order After Hearing filed 10/10/2025, the Court found Father had met his burden of overcoming the 3044 presumption but found it was in Ethan's best interest for Mother to retain sole legal and sole physical custody of Ethan. The Court expressed concern about the parties' troubled relationship and poor communication and stated that "if in the future if Father is able to show the Court that his focus remains on building a positive co-parenting relationship, the Court will consider a renewed motion for joint custody." The Court stated that it would like "the parties to focus on ensuring their respective time with Ethan is quality time as opposed to 1 returning to litigation." The Court ordered the parties to continue working with a coparent

2 counselor to improve their communications. The Court ordered a parenting time schedule for 3 Father from Thursday to Friday during Week A and Thursday to Sunday during Week B, which 4 equates to a 29% timeshare for Father.

5 3) On 1/16/2026, Father filed a request for joint legal custody and a structured, two-phase transition
6 into a 2-2-5-5 parenting time schedule, as well as a comprehensive a holiday schedule, with a 7 review hearing to take place in 6 months. He describes ongoing coparenting challenges; for 8 example, he states that Mother has not kept him apprised of Ethan's health and welfare and has 9 failed to follow the order requiring her to provide him with information of individuals conducting 10 custody exchanges. He states he wishes to enroll Ethan in a preschool in San Francisco during his 11 custodial days.

12 4) On 4/8/2026, Mother filed a response. She notes that Father requested an additional custodial day
13 and began discussing his goal of 50/50 custody just 13 days after the last hearing; she states it 14 appears 50/50 custody is Father's focus, rather than communicating to her about how Ethan is 15 doing with the new schedule or while in his care. Mother notes that Ethan resists going to Father
16 during exchanges while he readily comes to her care and that issues with Ethan's behavior 17 increased when Father's parenting time increased. (She attaches to her declaration notes from the 18 daycare expressing concern about Ethan's behavior.) She states that Ethan is thriving in her care 19 and has a regular routine and schedule that includes daycare, speech therapy, and time with 20 Mother that he has become accustomed to since the last hearing. Mother states she has been 21 present at all custody exchanges but has another individual do the exchange because of the 22 DVRO. She asks that she not be required to provide information for every individual who may be 23 there to assist her on any given day, so long as she is also personally present at the exchange. She 24 sets forth a proposed holiday schedule and asks for a Right of First Refusal because she has 25 reason to believe Father is not spending his parenting time with Ethan. She also asks for a change 26 in the custody exchange location due to parking and other issues.

27 5) On 4/14/2026, Father filed a reply in which he disputes some of Mother's statements and states
28 that a Right of First Refusal is unnecessary and not workable. He states he would like to maintain 29 the current custody exchange location, Wow Kids, which he believes is a positive place for Ethan

1 and allows him to play at Wow Kids before exchanges. Father agrees with some parts of Mother's 2 proposed holiday schedule and also asks for a summer schedule, including an order permitting
3 him to take Ethan to Maryland in July.

4 B. Findings and Orders

- 5 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
6 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
7 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
8 child is the United States.
 - 9 2) The Court finds it is in Ethan's best interest to maintain the current custody and parenting time
10 schedule to which he is in the process of adjusting. The Court notes that Father filed his request 11 just three months after the prior order in which the Court increased his parenting time and 12 instructed the parties to focus on their time with Ethan and improving their coparenting skills 13 instead of returning to litigation. The parties' declarations do not reflect sufficient improvement in 14 the parties' communication or ability to coparent or make joint decisions to justify a modification 15 at this time.
 - 16 3) The parties shall keep each other informed of any significant developments relating to Ethan's 17 health, education, and welfare.
 - 18 4) The Court orders the following holiday schedule: Mother's Day and Father's Day - each parent 19 will have their respective day; Thanksgiving, defined as Thanksgiving Thursday at 9am to the 20 next day, Friday, at 9am - Mother in even-numbered years and Father in odd-numbered years;
21 Christmas, defined as 9am on December 24 to 9am on December 26 - Father in even-numbered 22 years and Mother in odd-numbered years. The parties shall meet and confer regarding all other 23 holidays, including a summer schedule and Father's request to travel out of state with Ethan.
 - 24 5) The Court denies Mother's request for a Right of First Refusal and change in exchange location.
 - 25 6) If Mother is present at the custody exchange, she is not required to provide Father with 26 information regarding the individual(s) who will assist her with the exchange.
 - 27 7) All orders not in conflict with these orders shall remain in full force and effect.
 - 28 8) Mother's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 29

1 9) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
2 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
3 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
4 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
5 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 6 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
7 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear at 9am. The parties may appear in person in Department 404 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Peter William Coats (Father) and Cici Huong Hoai Vu (Mother) have one minor child together, Daphne (DOB 8/24/2012, age 13).
- 2) In a Findings and Order After Hearing (FOAH) filed 1/21/2026, the Court accepted the parties' partial agreement to share joint legal custody of Daphne; to have Dr. Mark Hirschfield act as the family reunification therapist, with costs to be shared equally between the parties; to have Mother facilitate Daphne's participation in reunification therapy, and to return for a review hearing in 90 days. In addition, the Court ordered that Father shall have parenting time consisting of a weekly family reunification session with Mother and Daphne, and to have a weekly video visit with Daphne three days after each session. The Court also ordered the parties to participate in coparenting counseling and meet and confer to select a mutually agreeable coparenting counselor.

3) On 4/10/2026, Mother filed an update declaration. On 4/14/2026, Father filed an update declaration. The Court has reviewed and considered both declarations.

B. Findings and Orders

1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor child is the United States.

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: PERMISSION TO RENEW CHILD'S PASSPORT

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Trang Ngo Yee (Mother) and Respondent Dickson Yee (Father) have one minor child, Ethan (DOB: 10/14/2011, age 14). Both parties are self-represented.
- 2) A Judgment was entered in this matter on 10/27/2015 awarding joint legal custody to the parties and sole physical custody to Mother.
- 3) On for hearing is Mother's Request for Order filed 3/2/2026 asking the Court for authority to renew Ethan's passport, which is set to expire on 7/7/2026. Mother states that she plans to travel to Vietnam this summer to visit her father (Ethan's grandfather). Mother attached copies of a letter, email, and text message requesting Father's participation and consent in renewing Ethan's passport, but Mother states she received no response to any of these communications.
- 4) There is no Proof of Service on file for Mother's Request for Order and Father did not file a Responsive Declaration.

1 B. Findings and Order

- 2 1) As there is no Proof of Service on file evidencing service of Mother's Request for Order and 3 because this motion was erroneously not first set on a Monday readiness calendar, the hearing
4 will be continued to Monday, 5/11/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404.
- 5 2) On or before 4/28/2026, Mother shall have a third party age 18 years or older serve Father with 6 the following documents by email and U.S. mail:
- 7 a. Request for Order filed 3/2/2026;
 - 8 b. Blank Responsive Declaration (FL-320);
 - 9 c. Findings and Order After Hearing from the 4/21/2026 hearing date (which will be mailed

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: CHANGE OF SYSTEM TO APPLY HOLIDAY SCHEDULE AND ROFR

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Romina S. Rozensztajn (Mother) and Respondent William H. Gorrod (Father) have two minor children together, twins Penelope and Scarlett (DOB 7/16/2015, age 10). They have joint legal and joint physical custody of the children (except that Father has sole education-related decision-making authority), with a 2-2-5-5 parenting time schedule during the school year, and a separate holiday schedule.
- 2) On 1/23/2026, Father filed a request for an order eliminating the Right of First Refusal or limiting the right by ordering that it may not be exercised when the children are going to be in the care of known and trusted caregivers or at a sleepover, a sleepaway camp, or a field trip. Father also proposes a holiday schedule that he believes will minimize conflict between the parties.
- 3) On 3/27/2026, Mother filed a response stating the Right of First Refusal should be maintained and that the parties can work with Janet Price or another coparenting professional to try to reach an agreement regarding the holiday schedule. She raises other concerns, e.g., that the children are

1 not comfortable in Father's wife's care, that they do not want to go on overnight trips or 2 sleepovers, and that Mother has reluctantly, but in good faith (to avoid conflict), agreed to 3 Father's many requests for modifications to the parenting time schedule.

4 4) On 4/13/2026, Father filed a reply in which he disagrees with many of Mother's statements,
5 including those regarding his wife and the children's comfort level regarding overnight trips.

6 5) The parties attended mediation and reached the following partial agreement:

7 a. The parents agree to a 2-2-5-5 parenting schedule as follows:

8 Father's parenting time shall be from Monday at 8:00 a.m. until Wednesday at 9 8am;

10 Mother's parenting time shall be from Wednesday at 8:00 a.m. until Friday at 11 8am;

12 The parents shall alternate weekends, with parenting time beginning Friday at 13 8am and ending Monday at 8am.

14 b. Summer Schedule:

15 During the summer break, the parents agree to a week-on/week-off parenting 16 schedule.

17 The 10-week summer schedule shall begin at 5pm on the first Sunday following 18 the last day of school and shall end at 5pm on the last Sunday preceding the first 19 day of school.

20 The parent who has custody on the weekend immediately preceding the start of 21 the summer schedule shall have the first week of summer parenting time.

22 c. Holiday Schedule:

23 The parties agree to share holidays as follows, and that such holidays shall take 24 priority over the regular custodial schedule.

25 Unless otherwise agreed, all exchanges on work/school days shall occur at 8am
26 and all exchanges on non-school days shall occur at 10am.

27 Mother's Day: Mother on all years;

28 Father's Day: Father on all years;

29 Mother's Birthday: Mother on all years;

1 Father's Birthday: Father on all years;

2 Child's Birthday: Mother in even-numbered years; Father in odd-numbered 3 years;

4 Halloween: Mother in odd-numbered years; Father in even-numbered years;

5 Fourth of July: Mother in even-numbered years; Father in odd-numbered years;

6 Any Friday or Monday holiday shall be spent with the parent who has the 7 adjacent weekend parenting time.

8 6) The issues still in dispute are as follows:

9 a. Mother is requesting that the children not be left alone with any third party.

10 b. Mother is requesting a Tier 2 interview with the children.

11 c. Mother is requesting the ability to travel with the children during her custodial parenting 12 time.

13 d. For Thanksgiving: Mother wishes to have parenting time the entire Thanksgiving break 14 in 2026. Thereafter, Mother wishes to have Thanksgiving in even-numbered years and for 15 Father to have Thanksgiving in odd-numbered years.

16 e. For Winter Break: In even-numbered years, Mother wishes to have the first week, from 17 Sunday at 8am to the following Sunday at 8am, and for Father to have the second week
18 of winter break, from Sunday at 8am to the following Sunday at 8am, in odd-numbered 19 years. Father wishes for the weeks to split beginning on Mondays at 8am to the following 20 Monday at 8am.

21 f. For Spring Break and Thanksgiving, Father wishes for the holiday schedule to apply only 22 to the Monday through Friday portion of the break, not already covered by the regular 23 schedule. If a parent's regular weekend is before the break, that parent continues 24 parenting time from Friday at 8am to Saturday at 8am, at which point the regular 25 schedule resumes. If a parent's regular weekend is at the end of the break, that parent 26 continues parenting time from Monday at 8am to the following Monday at 8am.

27 g. Vacation: Father wishes for each parent to take vacation during their custodial summer
28 weeks, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Father also seeks a "school activity exception" for them to attend the 4/22-4/25/2026 school field trip in Coloma, regardless of either parent's custodial time.
29

- h. Right of First Refusal: Father asks for the Right of First Refusal to apply only when a parent needs a paid third-party caregiver, and it shall not apply when the children are with trusted caregivers, including family members, close friends, or during social or extracurricular activities.

B. Findings and Orders

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor children is the United States.
- 2) The Court finds it is in the children's best interests to maintain the current custody and parenting time orders and the holiday schedule to which the parties agreed at mediation.
- 3) The Court modifies the Right of First Refusal to not apply when the children are with family members, close friends, or at social or extracurricular activities.
- 4) Mother's request for a Tier 2 interview of the children is denied without prejudice.
- 5) Thanksgiving Break: Thanksgiving Break shall be defined as 8am the Monday before Thanksgiving to 8am (or school drop off) the Monday after Thanksgiving. Mother shall have Thanksgiving Break in even-numbered years, and Father shall have Thanksgiving Break in odd-numbered years.
- 6) Winter Break: Winter Break shall be defined as 8am on the Monday after school ends for the holidays to 8am (or school drop off) on the Monday when school resumes. Father shall have the first week of Winter Break (from 8am on Monday to the following 8am on Monday) in even-numbered years, and Mother shall have the second week of Winter Break (from 8am on Monday to the following 8am (or school drop off) on Monday) in odd-numbered years. The parties shall switch the first and second weeks of Winter Break in odd-numbered years.
- 7) Spring Break: Spring Break shall be defined as 8am on the Monday after school ends for the holidays to 8am (or school drop off) on the Monday when school resumes. Father shall have Spring Break in even-numbered years and Mother shall have spring break in odd-numbered years.

1 8) Vacation: The parties shall be permitted to take the children on vacation within the State of 2 California during their custodial summer or vacation weeks, unless they agree otherwise in 3 writing. For any out of state travel, the party who plans to travel shall provide the other parent 4 with 30 days' notice with basic travel information—dates of travel, any flight information, basic 5 itinerary, addresses of all lodging, and emergency contact information. For international travel 6 with the children, the parties must agree in writing to the trip (email or text agreements are 7 acceptable) or obtain a Court order before traveling with the children.

8 9) Coloma: Because the Coloma trip falls during Mother's custodial time, Mother shall decide 9 whether the children will go on the Coloma trip.

10 10) Father's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

11 11) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
12 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
13 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
14 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 15 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 16 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 17 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER OF CHANGE OF CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION (PARENTING TIME)

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear at 10am. The parties may appear in person in Department 404 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Johnny H. Mansour (Father) and Namiko Nakatani (Mother) have one minor child together, Tsuki (DOB 11/11/2014, age 11). The parties have joint legal and joint physical custody of Tsuki.
- 2) In a Findings and Order After Hearing (FOAH) filed 7/15/2025, the Court noted that the parties reached an agreement at mediation for holiday parenting time (Summer 2025 and Thanksgiving/Winter) and travel. The Court issued a parenting time schedule for the school year and other holidays and also issued conduct orders including gun safety, coparent counseling, and non-disparagement orders.
- 3) On 1/7/2026, Father filed a request for a change in custody and parenting time. He seeks: (1) "clear protocols for the Right of First Refusal"; (2) a set schedule for 2026; (3) appointment of a parenting coordinator.

- 4) On 1/27/2026, Mother filed a response in which she seeks: (1) an order prohibiting Father from enrolling Tsuki in extracurricular activities without Mother's consent; (2) an order requiring advance disclosure of caregiver information and three-weeks' notice for purposes of exercising the Right of First Refusal; and (3) advance notice and coordination for any public custody exchanges.
- 5) On 1/30/2026, Father filed a reply declaration in which he responds to many of the statements Mother has made in her response.
- 6) The Court has reviewed and considered all declarations.

B. Findings and Orders

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor child is the United States.
- 2) The parties are ordered to appear in person or via Zoom on 4/21/2026 at 10am in Department 404.

REQUEST FOR ORDER REQUEST TO SEAL PLEADINGS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Shu-Hone (Lisa) Yao (Mother) and Respondent Erwin Mock (Father) have two minor children, Elana (DOB: 10/3/2012, age 13) and Alexander (DOB: 9/10/2015, age 10).
- 2) A Judgment was entered in this matter on 1/31/2024, which incorporated a confidential Marital Settlement Agreement.
- 3) On for hearing is Father's Request for Order filed 2/23/2026 asking that "all pleadings related to the domestic violence pleadings be sealed from the public record. Father lists 12 pleadings total that he would like sealed, including pleadings related to the instant motion. Father states that in February 2026, he became aware that trellis.law and unicourt.com have published records involving Mother's request for a domestic violence restraining order (which Mother later withdrew) and that the websites have refused to remove the pleadings from their site absent a court order. Father states, "These filings, which are available to view by anyone who Googles my name or Ms. Yao's name, will have a direct impact on my ability to continue in my professional and volunteer efforts if these remain a part of the public court file... Unless the court orders the

1 records to be sealed, these records... will remain available for public consumption, and cause
2 long-lasting harm to our family in violation of our right to privacy... Ms. Yao has indicated that
3 she supports this request and will join in it. We are not seeking a blanket sealing order to maintain
4 privacy of all respects. We have instead narrowly tailored this request to only the pleadings
5 related to the domestic violence action, custody, and this motion. Absent a sealing order from this 6 Court, I do not believe there are other means in which to protect my privacy rights.”

- 7 4) On 2/17/2026, Father filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities citing California Rules of 8 Corut, rules 2.550 – 2.551; Section 1, Article 1 of the California Constitution; and NBC
9 Subsidiary v. Superior Court (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1178.
- 10 5) On 4/8/2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration stating that she is joining Father in his 11 request to seal the identified pleadings. Mother also identifies her own list of pleadings (separate 12 from Father’s list) that she seeks to seal. The Court notes that on 3/30/2026, Mother filed her own 13 Request for Order to seal this additional set of pleadings and the hearing is currently set for 14 6/4/2026. Mother states that the pleadings the parties are seeking to seal “ include sensitive and 15 extremely private information about me, my children, and our family, all of which can be 16 accessed merely by Googling our names. They include records relating to my Request for 17 Domestic Violence Restraining Order, which I withdrew.... If these records were to remain
18 published, it would cause great personal harm to me, Erwin, and our child and directly impact
19 professional and volunteer endeavors... Judgment in our marital dissolution action was entered 20 years ago. The filing are merely historical documents at this point with no relevance to any on-21 going litigation. Neither Erwin nor I are public figures. The information contained in these 22 pleadings is damaging to our family if left easily accessible.”
- 23 6) On 3/30/2026 Mother filed her own Request for Order asking the Court to seal 16 pleadings
24 (these pleadings are not the same pleadings that Father is asking the Court to seal in his 2/23/2026 25 Request for Order). The hearing on Mother’s Request for Order is currently set for 6/4/2026.

26 B. Findings and Order

- 27 1) Mother’s request to seal her list of 16 identified pleadings is denied without prejudice. The Court
28 will hear Mother’s request related to these pleadings at the upcoming 6/4/2026 hearing.
29

- 1 2) Under California Rule of Court, rule 2.550(d), “The court may order that a record be filed under
2 seal only if it expressly finds facts that establish: (1) There exists an overriding interest that 3 overcomes the right of public access to the record; (2) The overriding interest supports sealing the 4 record; (3) A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the 5 record is not sealed; (4) The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and (5) No less restrictive
6 means exist to achieve the overriding interest.”
- 7 3) The Court finds that the parties have not identified an overriding interest that overcomes the right
8 of public access to the record, nor does the Court find that the parties have shown that a 9 substantial probability exists that any purported overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record
10 is not sealed. The Court denies Father’s request to seal records related to the Request for 11 Domestic Violence Restraining Order.
- 12 4) Father’s attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 13 5) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 14 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
15 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
16 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 17 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 18 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 19 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Emily Hsi (Mother) and Respondent Hungyu "Henry" Lin (Father) have two minor children together, Chloe (DOB 7/20/2021, age 4) and Ethan (DOB 5/28/2023, age 2). They have joint legal and joint physical custody of the children.
- 2) In a Findings and Order After Hearing filed 1/5/2026 (after a hearing on 11/18/2025), the Court stated it had "reviewed the extensive pleadings and submissions in this action and is concerned by the unnecessary complexity of past stipulations and orders." The Court set forth a parenting time schedule for the parties which, commencing January 2026, gives Father two, single overnights during Week A and a total of four overnights (1 overnight + 3 overnights) with the children during Week B, plus various holidays. The Court set a review hearing for 4/21/2026, issued non-disparagement and other conduct orders, and stated that "if the parents are on track and conflict has been reduced, the Court envisions placing the parties on a 2-2-3 schedule at the review hearing." The Court ordered the parties to file and serve update declarations, no longer than 5 pages, at least 10 days before the review hearing.

1 3) On 4/10/2026, Mother filed a declaration in which she states she is not opposed to modifying the 2 parenting time schedule "per se," but that a "modified 2-2-5" would better serve the children's 3 developmental interests and would also reduce conflict between the parties. Under her proposed 4 schedule, the children would follow a 2-2-5 schedule but would also have time with the other
5 parent during the 5-day weekend period (with Mother every Sunday from 4:30pm to 7pm and 6 with Father every Friday from 4:30pm to 7pm) so that "neither child goes more than [2.5] days
7 without seeing either parent." Mother states that in requesting this schedule, she conferred with 8 her "mental health professionals"--her parenting coach and her consulting expert. She notes that 9 her parenting coach also consulted with Father's parenting coach. She believes that with each 10 parent having time with the children on set days during the week ("Monday/Tuesday Dad" and 11 "Wednesday/Thursday Mom") would be reliable, consistent, and stable for the children. She 12 states that she would have submitted declarations from these professionals but did not do so 13 because of the Court's "strict 5-page limit with no exhibits/attachments" for update declarations,
14 but that she is prepared to obtain and submit a declaration from the mental health professional(s)
15 if the Court deems it helpful.

16 4) On 4/10/2026, Father filed a declaration in which he requests "a 2-2-3, consistent with Judge
17 [C]ostin's guidance" in the 1/5/2026 FOAH. He states that a "2-2-3 caps separation at three days--
18 the recognized developmental limit for preschool-aged children--provides equal access to both 19 parents across weekdays and weekends, and is an incremental step from the current arrangement, 20 with all exchanges at school." Father states that Emily's proposed "modified 2-2-5" would require 21 a 5-day separation, which is developmentally inappropriate. He also believes that the brief dinner 22 visits Mother proposes are "more disruptive than reassuring" and should not be ordered for 23 "parties with a documented history of gatekeeping." Father states that Mother has a history of 24 withholding the children with claims against him that have since been disproven, and that 25 Mother's proposed schedule "is not structured around the children's needs," but rather, "is 26 structured to ensure she retains the children on every activity day, preserving unilateral control 27 over enrollment decisions." Father has submitted a declaration from Robert L. Kaufman, Ph.D., in 28 which Dr. Kaufman explains why Mother's proposed "modified 2-2-5" schedule would be 29

1 "unsettling" for the children and "would perpetuate the already problematic co-parenting
2 relationship."

- 3 5) Father has filed an objection and motion to strike the statements of Mother and her attorney
4 regarding why the mental health professionals (Mother's parenting coach and consulting expert)
5 believe the modified 2-2-5 schedule is better for the children and the parties. He states that 6 sanctions under Family Code section 271 are appropriate.

7 B. Findings and Orders

- 8 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
9 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in 10 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor 11 children is the United States.
- 12 2) The Court finds it is in the children's best interest to maintain the current order for joint legal 13 custody and to modify physical custody to a 2-2-3 parenting time schedule commencing 14 4/24/2026. The Court has considered both parties' personal opinions as to why they believe their 15 proposed parenting time schedule is better and finds that a 2-2-3 schedule is age appropriate,
16 ensures frequent and continuing contact, is straightforward, and is likely to minimize conflict
17 between the parties. The Court understands Mother's preference for the parties to have set days of 18 the week every week and will consider a 2-2-5 or other schedule in the future, if/when further 19 modification becomes necessary or appropriate.
- 20 3) In reaching its decision, the Court has not considered the professional opinions presented by 21 either party. Rather, the Court has considered the history of this case as set forth in the case file 22 and, as stated, the parties' opinions as to what they believe is best for their children. Father's 23 motion to strike Mother's and her attorney's statements regarding the mental health professionals 24 is granted. Father's request for sanctions is denied.
- 25 4) Father's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 26 5) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 27 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
28 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
29 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the

1 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within
2 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
3 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER: REQUEST FOR PERMISSION FOR CONFIDENTIAL DISSOLUTION
FILING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) On 1/30/2026, Petitioner Jane Doe filed a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage against Respondent John Doe. Petitioner states the parties married on 12/12/2014 and separated on 1/30/2025, for a marriage of 11 years and 1 month. The parties have 4 minor children, Children Doe 1 – 4, ages ranging from 4 to 13. Both parties are self-represented.
- 2) On for hearing is Petitioner’s Request for Order filed 1/30/2026. Petitioner states Respondent is her second husband. Petitioner states her first husband subjected her to extreme physical and psychological violence and she has a permanent restraining order against her first husband. Petitioner lodged documentary evidence to show that she is in California’s “Safe At Home Address” program. Petitioner states her first husband has also threatened to harm Respondent and their children and he has been able to find “us at various points through various ways.” Petitioner asks the Court to:
 - a. Permit the parties to proceed in this action under pseudonyms;

- b. Order the parties' legal names and identifying information be sealed, redacted, or excluded from public records to the extent permitted by law; and
 - c. Grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper to protect their safety.
- 3) Both parties appeared at the prior hearing date on 4/9/2026. The Court continued the hearing to 4/21/2026 on its own motion.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) The Court finds that Petitioner is a protected person under the address confidentiality program pursuant to Government Code 6205 et seq. As such, she is entitled to use a pseudonym in a civil proceeding under Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3. The Court similarly finds that maintaining confidentiality of Respondent and the names of the parties' children is essential for their safety as well as Petitioner's safety and this interest outweighs the constitutional right of access in this case.
- 2) The parties are entitled to exclude or redact from all pleadings and documents filed in the action to conceal identifying information (as that term is defined by Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3(a)(1)) of the parties and their children. All parties and their agents and attorneys shall use pseudonyms for the parties (i.e., Jane Doe, John Doe, and Children Doe 1 – 4) in all pleadings, discovery requests or discovery motion documents, and other documents filed or served in the action, and at hearings, trial, and other court proceedings that are open to the public. However, as set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3(B)(2)(b), "[a] party seeking discovery in which the true name of the protected person and identifying information must be divulged for the purposes of fair and reasonable discovery, may use the true name of the protected person and identifying information for purposes of that discovery. The discovery request and all information collected through the discovery process shall not be made public."
- 3) As set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3(b)(2)(C), "A party filing a pleading, discovery document, or other document in the action shall exclude or redact any identifying characteristics of the protected person from the pleading, discovery document, or other document, except for a confidential information form" which shall be filed with the Court and served upon all other parties "that includes the protected person's name and other identifying characteristics being excluded or redacted" and which the Court shall keep confidential.

- 1 4) As set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3(b)(2)(D), “Following final disposition of 2 the proceedings a party in possession of any pleading, discovery document, or other document
3 containing confidential information of the protected person obtained in the course of the action
4 shall treat the documents as a nonpublic consumer record in accordance with Section 1798.81 of 5 the Civil Code, subject to penalty for violations of that section.”
- 6 5) As set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 367.3(b)(3), “The responsibility to exclude or 7 redact identifying characteristics of the protected person from documents filed with the court rests
8 solely with the parties and their attorneys.” The Court is not required “to review pleadings or 9 other papers for compliance.”
- 10 6) Intentional violations of these orders are subject to sanction.
- 11 7) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
