8:30

AM

NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL COMPLIANCE WITH STATEMENTS OF COMPLIANCE (CODE CIV. PROC., § 2031.320).

RULING:

The Court denies the Motion.

I. BACKGROUND

The Court incorporates by reference the Background section stated in the Minute Order entered on April 7, 2025.

On December 16, 2025, Plaintiff filed the Motion seeking to compel Defendants' production of documents as agreed in their discovery responses.

Defendants filed an Opposition, arguing, inter alia, that Plaintiff failed to identify any document not produced as agreed.

Plaintiff has filed an impressively detailed Reply, adding points and authorities, and a Declaration describing documents not produced, meet-and-confer efforts, and a desire to itemize costs recoverable by a self-represented litigant as sanctions.

LEGAL STANDARD

“If the party fails to make a production in accordance with its statement of compliance, the opposing party may file another motion to compel seeking compliance.” (Bd. of

Registered Nursing v. Superior Court (2021) 59 Cal.App.5th 1011, 1033

[citing Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.320].)

A discovery motion should not be denied automatically based upon the reason that the moving parties failed to meet and confer in good faith. (Obregon

v. Superior Court (1998) 67 Cal.App.4th 424, 434. But see Townsend v.

Superior Court (1998) 61 Cal.App.4th 1431, 1439 [motion must be denied where lack of meet and confer].) A failure to meet and confer in good faith, “may jeopardize the movant's ability to obtain relief for the other side's alleged misuse of the discovery process.” (In re Marriage of Moore (2024) 102 Cal.App.5th 1275, 1298–1299.) “A determination of whether an attempt at informal resolution is adequate . . . involves the exercise of discretion.” (Stewart v. Colonial W. Agency (2001) 87

Cal.App.4th 1006, 1016. Accord, Clement

v. Alegre (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 1277, 1293-1294.)

ANALYSIS

Plaintiff reasons that

Defendants failed to produce all documents promised in their statements of compliance, and that for any document not produced they are required to serve a Code-compliant declaration under Code of Civil Procedure section 2031.230 with the response stating a representation of inability to comply with the particular demand for inspection.

Defendants report their production of many documents and counterargue that Plaintiff failed to indicate how Defendants have failed to accomplish their production in accordance with their statement of compliance. Defendants also complain that Plaintiff failed to meet and confer.

A motion to compel compliance as agreed with a request for production of documents is based upon a showing that the respondents failed "to permit an inspection 'in accordance with that party's statement of compliance.'" (Standon Co. v. Superior Court (1990) 225 Cal.App.3d 898, 903. See also Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.320, subd. (a).)

Plaintiff's Declaration, separately filed December 16, 2026, states that documents were not produced as agreed, but without any factual basis for reaching that generalized conclusion.

While Plaintiff's Reply

Declaration describes missing documents, it is untimely and thus prevents

Defendants from having any due-process opportunity to file a document responding to it. "[T]he general rule is that new evidence is not permitted even on reply." (Haydon v. Elegance at Dublin (2024) 97 Cal.App.5th 1280, 1289.)

Hence, the Court has no permissible basis to identify any documents actually not produced in accordance with the discovery requests and responses, as worded.

III.

CONCLUSION

The Court denies the Motion.
