ANALYSIS:

I.

Background

On February 28, 2025,

Plaintiffs Maria Soledad Lopez and

Vanessa Flores ("Plaintiffs") filed an action against defendants Lauren

Lockwood (defendant "Lockwood"), Lesvia Patricia Portillo, Oscar Rolando

Portillo, Glenis Cardona, Cardona Investments a Real Estate Co., Golden Escrow, and DOES 1-10 (collectively, "Defendants"). On July 2, 2025, Plaintiffs filed the First Amended Complaint alleging breach of contract, fraud, negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair business practice, and conspiracy. (Complaint, pp. 12-26.)

On December 1, 2025, Defendants filed an Answer.

On May 11, 2026, Plaintiffs filed the instant Motions to Deem

Requests for Admissions (RFA) Admitted and Compel Responses to Form

Interrogatories, Special Interrogatories, and Request for Production (RPD) (collectively, the “Motions”) served on defendant Lockwood.

No Oppositions to the Motions were filed.

II.

Legal

Standard

A party must respond to interrogatories within 30 days after service. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.260, subd. (a).) If a party to whom interrogatories are directed does not provide timely responses, the requesting party may move for an order compelling responses to the discovery. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290, subd. (b).) The party also waives the right to make any objections, including one based on privilege or work-product protection. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290, subd. (a).) There is no time limit for a motion to compel responses to interrogatories other than the cut-off on hearing discovery motions 15 days before trial. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2024.020, subd. (a), 2030.290.) No meet and confer efforts are required before filing a motion to compel responses to the discovery. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290; Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting, Inc. v. Pacific Healthcare Consultants (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 390, 411.)

A party must respond to requests for production of documents within 30 days after service. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.260, subd. (a).) If a party to whom requests for production of documents are directed does not provide timely responses, the requesting party may move for an order compelling responses to the discovery. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.300, subd. (b).) The party also waives the right to make any objections, including one based on privilege or work-product protection. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.300, subd. (a).) There is no time limit for a motion to compel responses to production of documents other than the cut-off on hearing discovery motions 15 days before trial. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2024.020, subd. (a), 2031.300.)

No meet and confer efforts are required before filing a motion to compel responses to the discovery. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.300; Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting, Inc. v. Pacific Healthcare Consultants (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 390, 411.)

A party must respond to requests for admissions within 30 days after service of such requests. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2033.250, subd. (a).) “If a party to whom requests for admission are directed fails to serve a timely response...(a)

[that party] waives any objection to the requests, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product...” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2033.280, subd. (a).) “The requesting party may move for an order that the genuineness of any documents and the truth of any matters specified in the requests be deemed admitted, as well as for a monetary sanction under Chapter 7.” (Code Civ.

Proc., § 2033.280, subd. (b).)

III.

Discussion

A. Interrogatories, Request for

Production of Documents, and Requests for Admission

Plaintiffs contend that defendant Lockwood failed to timely respond to the Form Interrogatories, Special Interrogatories

(collectively, Interrogatories), RPDs, and RFAs on or by the statutory deadline. (Motion to Compel Form Interrogatories, p. 4; Motion to Compel

Special Interrogatories, p. 4; Motion to Compel RPDs, p. 4; Motion to Deem RFAs

Here, Plaintiffs’ counsel served defendant Lockwood with the Interrogatories, RPDs, and RFAs by email on March 10, 2026. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶ 7, Exh. A.) As of April 28, 2026,

Plaintiffs' counsel had not received any responses, despite giving defendant

Lockwood's counsel a two-week extension by request and as a professional courtesy. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶¶ 13-15, Exh. G, H.)

Thus, Plaintiffs are entitled to an order compelling defendant Lockwood to provide responses without objections to the Interrogatories and RPDs and an order deeming RFAs admitted.

B. Sanctions

Sanctions are mandatory against the party, the person, or the attorney whose failure to serve a timely response to the request necessitated the motion to deem request for admissions as admitted and the motion to compel responses to interrogatories.

(See Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290(c), 2033.280(c); see also Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.1348(a) [the court can award sanctions under the Discovery Act in favor of a party seeking to compel discovery even though no opposition was filed, the opposition was withdrawn, or the requested discovery was provided to the moving party after the motion was filed].)

"A request for a sanction shall, in the notice of motion, identify every person, party, and attorney against whom the sanction is sought, and specify the type of sanction sought. The notice of motion shall be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities, and accompanied by a declaration setting forth facts supporting the amount of any monetary sanction sought.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2023.040.)

Here, defendant Lockwood failed to serve timely responses to Plaintiffs’ Interrogatories, RPD, and RFA by the statutory deadline. Thus, sanctions are mandatory against defendant Lockwood.

(See Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290(c), 2031.300(c), 2033.280(c); see also Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.1348(a).)

The Court finds

Plaintiffs’ Notice of Motion for each motion complies with Code of Civil Procedure section 2023.040.

Plaintiffs

request monetary sanctions of $997.50, based on $937.50 for each motion, reflecting two hours incurred on drafting, preparing, and revising all Motions and anticipates that it will take another half-hour to address this Motion with the court at an hourly rate of $375.00 per hour, plus the $60.00 filing fee for all Motions. (Gonzalez Decl., ¶¶

17-18.)

Given the similarity of the motions to each other, the shared hearing date, the lack of Oppositions and Replies, and the straightforward nature of the Motions, Plaintiffs' request for monetary sanctions against defendant Lockwood is GRANTED in total amount requested of $997.50, reflecting 2.5 hours incurred at $375.00 per hour plus $60.00 in filing fees.

IV.

Conclusion

& Order

For the foregoing reasons,

Plaintiffs Maria Soledad Lopez and

Vanessa Flores' unopposed Motion to Deem Request for Admissions

Admitted, unopposed Motion to Compel Answers to Form Interrogatories, unopposed Motion to Compel Answers to Special Interrogatories, and unopposed

Motion to Compel Answers to Request for Production are GRANTED. Defendant Lockwood is to provide verified and code-compliant responses within 30 days of this order.

Plaintiffs' Request for Admissions, Nos. 1-13, against defendant Lockwood are deemed admitted.

Plaintiffs Maria Soledad Lopez and Vanessa Flores' unopposed requests for monetary sanctions against defendant Lockwood are GRANTED in the reduced total amount of $997.50, payable to Plaintiffs' counsel within 30 days of this order.

Moving party is ordered to give notice.
