

		10. The proposed order and judgment should include the definitions of the Aggrieved Employees and the PAGA Period. 11. Counsel should not leave blank but should instead propose a realistic Final Accounting hearing date, taking into account the deadlines associated with funding the settlement, mailing distributions, allowing the check-cashing deadline to pass, and depositing uncashed check funds pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement. The Court usually sets these hearings 9-10 months after final approval if the check-cashing deadline is 180 days. The parties must report to the Court the total amount that was actually paid to Aggrieved Employees and all others in accordance with the settlement agreement. All supporting papers must also be filed at least sixteen (16) court days before the Final Accounting hearing date. The Court further refers Plaintiff's counsel to the "Guidelines for Approval of Class Action Settlements & PAGA Settlements" posted on the Court's website for Department CX102, available at https://voypubapps.occourts.org/complex-civil-calendar. Plaintiff's counsel must file supplemental papers addressing the Court's concerns no later than sixteen (16) court days prior to the continued hearing date. Counsel must also provide redlined versions of all revised papers and an explanation of how the pending issues were resolved with precise citation to any revisions. A supplemental declaration or brief that simply asserts the issues have been resolved is insufficient and will result in a continuance. Plaintiff to give notice of this ruling, including to the LWDA, within five (5) court days, and file proof of service.
