

17	30-2026-01592179 Alicia Viejo Apartments, LLC vs. Guevara	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Demurrer to the Complaint (ROA 12) and the Complaint (ROA 2). The Court OVERRULES the Demurrer. The Defendant is to file an Answer within 5 calendar days. The Plaintiff is ordered to provide notice of the Court's ruling.
18	30-2026-01585987 622 S. Velare Street Associates vs. Galvan	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment (ROA 39). As of 10:12 PM on 9/10/2026, no response has been filed by the Plaintiff. The California Supreme Court held, "if the court concludes that the plaintiff's evidence or inferences raise a triable issue of material fact, it must conclude its consideration and deny the defendants' motion." (Aguilar v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (2001) 25 Cal.4th 826, 856.) Here, the Plaintiff submitted no evidence or argument to counter the assertions in the Defendant's motion. Plaintiff's own complaint shows that the lease agreement claims an exemption to the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 ("TPA") but the Complaint concedes that the TPA applies to the tenancy. Because the Tenant did not receive proper TPA notice, no material issues of triable fact or law remain. The Court finds judgment for possession of the property located at 620 S. Velare Street #206, Anaheim, CA 92804, County of Orange, for the Defendants, Maria Galvan and Victor Carillo. Defendants are the prevailing party and may claim attorney's fees and costs associated with the lawsuit by motion or oral motion. Mr. Gibson is ordered to prepare a UD-110 consistent with the Court's order and serve notice of the Court's ruling.
