Rodriguez v. Allstate Insurance Company

25STCV22024

Defendant's Motion to Compel Non-Party Global

Estimates, LLC to Comply with Deposition Subpoena

Tentative Ruling

The motion is denied without prejudice.

Defendant Allstate Insurance Company ("Defendant") moves for an order compelling Global Estimates, LLC, a non-party, to comply with a deposition subpoena and to pay monetary sanctions. Defendant has not, however, submitted a proof of service showing that the non-party was served with the motion.

"A written notice and all moving papers supporting a motion to compel an answer to a deposition question or to compel production of a document or tangible thing from a nonparty deponent must be personally served on the nonparty deponent unless the nonparty deponent agrees to accept service by mail or electronic service at an address or electronic service address specified on the deposition record."

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1346.)

Absent proof of proper service of the motion and all supporting papers on a non-party, the Court may not enter an order compelling the non-party to comply with a subpoena or pay sanctions.

Accordingly, the motion is denied without prejudice.

Moving party is ordered to give notice.
