BACKGROUND

This is an auto accident case. On November 17, 2025, plaintiffs Gegham Aroyan (Petitioner), Liana Hovhannisyan, Lily Aroyan (Lily), a minor by and through guardian ad litem Gegham Aroyan, Lucy Aroyan (Lucy), a minor by and through guardian ad litem Gegham Aroyan, and Isahak Aroyan (Isahak),^[1] a minor by and through guardian ad litem Gegham Aroyan (collectively, Plaintiffs), filed this action against defendants Annette Petrosyan, Tigran Petrosyan (collectively, Defendants) and Does 1 to 50, alleging causes of action for motor vehicle and general negligence.

On May 27, 2026, Petitioner filed petitions for approval of compromise of claim or action or disposition of proceeds of judgment for inor or person with disability on behalf of Lily, Lucy, and Isahak.

LEGAL STANDARD

Court approval is required for all settlements of a minor's claim or that of a person lacking the capacity to make decisions. (Prob. Code, §§ 2504, 3500, 3600 et seq.; Code Civ. Proc., § 372; see Pearson v. Superior Court (2012) 202 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1337.) "[T]he protective role the court generally assumes in cases involving minors, [is] a role to assure that whatever is done is in the minor's best interests . . . [I]ts primary concern is whether the compromise is sufficient to provide for the minor's injuries, care and treatment." (Goldberg v. Superior Court (1994) 23 Cal.App.4th 1378, 1382.)

A petition for court approval of a compromise under Code of Civil Procedure section 372 must comply with California Rules of Court Rules 7.950, 7.951, and 7.952. The petition must be verified by the petitioner and contain a full disclosure of all information that has "any bearing upon the reasonableness" of the compromise or the covenant. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.950.) The person compromising the claim on behalf of the person who lacks capacity, and the represented person, must attend the hearing on compromise of the claim unless the court for good cause dispenses with their personal appearance. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.952, subd. (a).) An order for deposit of funds of a minor or person lacking decision-making capacity and a petition for the withdrawal of such funds must comply with California Rules of Court Rules 7.953 and 7.954. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1384; see also Super. Ct. L.A. County, Local Rules, rules 4.115-4.118.)

DISCUSSION – Isahak

Form MC-350 (Rev. January 1, 2021)

Petitioner verified the petition on a fully completed mandatory Judicial Council Form MC-350, using the current January 1, 2021 revision. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.950.)

Settlement

Isahak has agreed to settle this action against Defendants in exchange for $2,500.00, $1,575.00 of which will go to Isahak. If approved, $625.00 will be paid in attorney fees, $300.00 will be paid for reimbursement of litigation costs advanced by Isahak's attorneys, and $0.00 will be paid for medical expenses, leaving a balance of $1,575.00 for Isahak, to be paid or delivered to Isahak's parent, without bond, on the terms and under the conditions specified in Probate Code sections 3401-3402.

Attorney Fees

Petitioner disclosed the retained attorney's information per Rule 7.951 of the California Rules of Court. (Petition, ¶ 17, subd. (b), Attach. 17a; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.951.) (Petition, Attach. 17a; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.951, subd. (6).)

Petitioner's counsel seeks to recover $625.00 in attorney fees.

(Petition, ¶ 13, subd. (a), Attach. 13a.) Petitioner's counsel provided a declaration addressing the reasonableness of the fee request per Rule 7.995, subdivision (c), of the California Rules of Court, accounting for the factors specified in Rule 7.955, subdivision (b). (Petition, Attach. 13a; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.955, subds. (b)-(c).) Rule 7.955, subdivision (b), provides as follows:

(b) Factors the court may consider in determining a reasonable attorney's fee. In determining a reasonable attorney's fee, the court may consider the following nonexclusive factors:

(1) The fact that a minor or person with a disability is involved and the circumstances of that minor or person with a disability.

(2) The amount of the fee in proportion to the value of the services performed.

(3) The novelty and difficulty of the questions involved and the skill required to perform the legal services properly.

(4) The amount involved and the results obtained.

(5) The time limitations or constraints imposed by the representative of the minor or person with a disability or by the circumstances.

(6) The nature and length of the professional relationship between the attorney and the representative of the minor or person with a disability.

(7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney or attorneys performing the legal services.

(8) The time and labor required.

(9) The informed consent of the representative of the minor or person with a disability to the fee.

(10) The relative sophistication of the attorney and the representative of the minor or person with a disability.

(11) The likelihood, if apparent to the representative of the minor or person with a disability when the representation agreement was made, that the attorney's acceptance of the particular employment would preclude other employment.

(12) Whether the fee is fixed,
hourly, or contingent.

(13) If the fee is contingent:

(A) The risk of loss borne by the attorney;

(B) The amount of costs advanced by the attorney; and

(C) The delay in payment of fees
and reimbursement of costs paid by the attorney.

(14) Statutory requirements for representation agreements applicable to particular cases or claims.
