KENDRA

JOHNSON, AN INDIVIDUAL, et al. vs GONZALEZ BROS, INC., Case No. 24NWCV04029

The

Complaint in this personal injury action was filed on October 25, 2024. Trial is currently scheduled for October 14, 2026. Plaintiffs Kendra Johnson and Donnell

Smith apply ex parte for an order continuing trial and all related pretrial deadlines on the grounds that the parties have executed a written stipulation to continue trial and all related dates; essential percipient, corporate, treating-physician, records, and expert discovery remains to be completed; defense experts require time to review subpoenaed records once received; defense counsel recently sustained torn tendons in his hand and is expected to remain in a brace through October 2026. The Court notes that Plaintiff has filed four motions to compel further responses from Defendant Gonzalez Bros., Inc. scheduled for December 1, 2026, December 7, 2026 (two motions), and December 8, 2026. Previously,

Plaintiffs filed six motions to compel initial responses from Defendant Angel Hernandez Hinojosa. The Court is concerned that the parties have not exchanged discovery in an expeditious manner. The ex parte application is

DENIED without prejudice. The pending discovery motions are ADVANCED to today and CONTINUED for Motion Setting to September 30, 2026 at 9:30 a.m. to coincide with the Final Status Conference. The parties are ordered to further meet and confer in a good faith attempt to resolve their discovery disputes. After doing so, if court intervention is still required, the parties shall file and serve briefs not to exceed three pages by September 23, 2026 outlining the discovery which remains in dispute and the parties' respective positions. On September 30, 2026, the Court will hold an informal discovery conference and hear any renewed requests for a trial continuance which may be made orally at the hearing. Moving party to give notice.
