53	Jhumra vs. Orange County Global Medical Center, Inc.	Defendant Neurovascular and Spine Associates, APC's demurrer to the 6th cause of action in Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint is sustained without leave to amend. A demurrer presents an issue of law regarding the sufficiency of the allegations set forth in the complaint. (Lambert v. Carnegie (2008) 158 Cal.App.4th 1120, 1126.) The challenge is limited to the "four corners" of the pleading (which includes exhibits attached and incorporated therein) or from matters outside the pleading which are judicially noticeable under Evidence Code §§ 451 or 452. Although California courts take a liberal view of inartfully drawn complaints, it remains essential that a complaint set forth the actionable facts relied upon with sufficient precision to inform the defendant of what plaintiff is complaining, and what remedies are being sought. (Leek v. Cooper (2011) 194 Cal.App.4th 399, 413.) Plaintiffs' 6th cause of action is for dependent adult abuse. Welfare & Institutions Code section 15610.07 defines abuse of an elder as: (1) Physical abuse, neglect, abandonment, isolation, abduction, or other treatment
