

1.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                | HEARING NAME                                        |
|-------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| CVRI2104463 | BROCKMEIER VSFUENTES | MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL BYJESYKA ERYNNE BROCKMEIER |

Tentative Ruling:

DENY

2.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                                      | HEARING NAME                                                                                                     |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CVRI2504126 | CARONNA VSCALIFORNIA BAPTISTUNIVERSITY | MOTION TO COMPELANSWER/RESPONSE TO FORMINTERROGATORIES,ANSWER/RESPONSE TOSPECIAL INTERROGATORIES |

Tentative Ruling:

DENY

As the moving party, Plaintiff bears the burden of showing good cause for the discovery sought by demonstrating relevance and specific facts justifying discovery. Here, Plaintiff fails to set forth specific facts demonstrating good cause as required by CCP § 2031.310. Plaintiff's belief that some documents exist because she observed faculty completing forms during recitals is insufficient good cause. In addition, Plaintiff fails to articulate how the documents are directly relevant to her claims and defenses. Even assuming that Plaintiff had met her burden, Defendant has provided code compliant, verified responses pursuant to CCP § 2031,210(a).

Plaintiff is sanctioned in the reduced sum of $1,200 ($400/hour x 3 hours), payable to defense counsel within 30 days.

3.

| CASE #      | CASE NAME                                                                 | HEARING NAME                              |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| CVRI2505607 | FUNDERS APP, LLC VSCONSTRUCTIONSPECIALTIES OFCALIFORNIA, INC. | MOTION TO ENFORCESETTLEMENT AGREEMENT |

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT

Plaintiff to submit a Proposed Judgment within 30 days.