Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

Counsel is ordered to appear to explain why this motion is not now moot, in light of the Court's order 6/29/2026. Full notice under CCP § 1005 was not given, as service on 6/25/26 is insufficient. The next substantive hearing is the prove-up hearing set for July 23, 2026 at 2:00 p.m.

25-PRO-01658	IN THE MATTER OF: THE LAURA A. SHEEHAN LIVING TRUST	VERIFIED PETITION UNDER PROBATE CODE 17200
Line 15	Petitioner: Sheehan, Christopher S. (Pro Se) Decedent: SHEEHAN, LAURA A.	Petition Hearing

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

Utilizing its inherent power to control its docket and proceedings, the Court is striking the following pleadings submitted by Petitioner, as they are either duplicative, procedurally defective and/or burdensome: The 4/16/26 16 page Points and authority; the 4/16/26 18 page Points and Authority; the 4/20/26 "Amended Judge's Brief;" the 4/21/26 "Judge's Brief on Amendment" The operative pleading is the Amended Petition filed 3.19/2026; nothing in the petition filed 12/01/25 is to be considered, and Petitioner is admonished not to incorporate it by reference in any future pleadings. The court will recognize as a legitimate pleading the 7/01/26 Request for Judicial Notice. If Petitioner elects to continue to represent himself, as he is entitled to do, he is admonished that he will be held to the same standards of any licensed attorney, and must abide by the California Rules of Court, the California Code of Civil Procedure, the California Evidence Code, and the California Probate Code. Once a petition including facts and argument is submitted, which may consist of supporting declarations or requests for judicial notice, Petitioner is not to subsequently file pleadings which he then entitles at Points and Authorities in support of that previously filed petition, as that is not in compliance with the CCP.

The parties are ordered to appear to discuss scheduling.
