

CV-24-007017 LOCKWOOD, VEOLA vs CARPENTER, KEVID MD –
Defendant American Medical Response West’s Motion for Summary
Judgment - GRANTED, and unopposed.

County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 23

Hearing date: 2012-04-02

Motion: Based on the moving arguments and evidence, including the declaration of Kristin Weivoda and Barry Marsh and the attachments thereto, and in the absence of any opposition, the Court finds that Defendant, as the moving party, has met the burden of demonstrating entitlement to judgment on Plaintiff’s Complaint herein. Specifically, the Court finds the undisputed facts support the conclusion that (1) Defendant’s personnel met the applicable standard of care in the care and treatment provided to Plaintiff’s decedent; and (2) Defendant is entitled to the statutory immunity provided in Health & Safety Code § 1799.107, as no allegation or evidence of bad faith or gross negligence is present herein. The following is the tentative ruling for a case calendared before Judge David Hood in Department 24:
