Case Number: 24AHCV00309 Hearing Date: August 11, 2026 Dept: X

#14 - JENNIFER WILLIAMS vs CITY OF PASADENA, et al.

On its own motion, the August 13, 2026 Trial Setting Conference is continued to September 17, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in Department X.

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Defendant's motion is granted in part and denied in part.

Ms. Gonzales's deposition shall not be taken before November 17, 2026. Within 10 calendar days of this order, counsel shall meet and confer by telephone or videoconference regarding available dates. The deposition shall proceed remotely by videoconference unless all parties stipulate otherwise. The first session of the deposition shall be limited to three hours of on-the-record examination, with reasonable breaks at least every 45 minutes. If additional time is reasonably necessary, the parties shall meet and confer regarding a second remote session, and any unresolved dispute may be presented by informal discovery request or noticed motion.

Absent further order, the deposition shall be completed no later than January 15, 2027.

If CSC seeks any further continuance of the deposition, the application must be supported by competent evidence specifically addressing Ms. Gonzales's ability to sit for a remote deposition and the anticipated duration of any inability.

The motion is granted without prejudice to Plaintiff seeking a continuance of Defendant's September 17, 2026 Motion for Summary Judgment pursuant to a showing sufficient under Code of Civil Procedure section 437c.

Sanctions

Plaintiff's

opposition requests sanctions.

The motion was not entirely without justification, because Ms. Gonzales did make a sworn showing of present hardship, and the Court had expressly invited a supported application for protective relief in its June 24, 2026 order. At the same time, CSC did not establish entitlement to the full stay requested.

Both sides prevailed in part, and the circumstances make a sanctions award unjust. Accordingly, the Court finds sanctions unwarranted on this record and denies Plaintiff's request for sanctions.

Unless waived by the parties, Moving Party is to give notice.
