On April 29, 2026, plaintiff Chong Liu

("Plaintiff") filed this motion to compel defendant Jie Phillips ("Defendant") to serve further responses and produce documents in response to Requests for Production of Documents (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Construction Litigation (Set One), and Special Interrogatories (Set One).

The motion was originally filed using a reservation hearing number assigned for a different motion, Plaintiff's motion to quash subpoenas. While the Court ruled on Plaintiff's motion to quash on May 22, 2026, the Court ordered Plaintiff to refile his motion to compel further and make a different reservation. Plaintiff re-filed his motion on June 9, 2026, and reserved a hearing date of June 30, 2026. Plaintiff did not file a separate statement and the Court assumes that he is relying on the one that he filed earlier on April 29, 2026. However, the sole separate statement provided by Plaintiff does not comply with California Rules of Court rule 3.1345(c), which requires the separate statement to include the "text of the request, interrogatory, question, or inspection demand" and the "text of each response, answer, or objection, and any further responses or answers." The Court additionally notes that Plaintiff failed to file three separate motions and pay three separate filing fees, even though his motion addresses three different sets of discovery.

The separate statement is supposed to be "full and complete so that no person is required to review any other document in order to determine the full request and the full response." (CRC 3.1345, subd. (c).) Plaintiff paraphrased his requests as well as Defendant's responses and did not include the full text, and the Court cannot review his motion without cross-referencing the arguments made in his separate statement, his discovery requests, and Defendant's discovery responses. Therefore, the separate statement he provided does not fulfill the purpose of this rule. Accordingly, the motion is DENIED.

Since the motion is DENIED, the Court imposes sanctions on Plaintiff in the reduced amount of $2,100 consisting of 6 hours at defense counsel's hourly rate of $350, payable within 10 days of the date of this Order.

Defendant to give notice.
