The following is a statement of the Court’s tentative ruling. The Court may adopt, modify or reject the tentative ruling after hearing. The tentative ruling has no legal effect unless and until adopted by the Court.

Motion: Application by Defendant Control Cutter, LLC (“Defendant”) for an order admitting Brittany Ruppel (“Ruppel” or “Applicant”) of Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP to appear pro hac vice.

Tentative Ruling: The application for Ms. Ruppel to appear pro hac vice is GRANTED.

Here, Applicant filed a declaration in support of the application setting forth the information in Rule 9.40(d)(1) through (d)(6). The proof of service indicates service on the State Bar and opposing counsel. Moreover, the declaration of Trevor C. Zeiler states that the fee has been paid to the State Bar.

Accordingly, Applicant complied with Rule 9.40, subdivisions (c)(1) and (e).

Additionally, Applicant declares facts to show that she is not a resident of this state, she is not regularly employed in this state, she has not applied to appear pro hac vice in California in the past two years, and she is in good standing in the jurisdictions where she is licensed.

Therefore, the application has merit, and complies with Rule 9.40, subdivisions (a) and (b). The application will be GRANTED.

Counsel for Defendant Control Cutter, LLC is to give notice of this ruling within two (2) court days.
