[TENTATIVE] ORDER RE: DEFENDANT
B4U US, INC.'S MOTION TO QUASH

Dept. 731

September 22, 2026

8:30 a.m.

Matter No. 15

Moving Party: Defendant, B4U US, INC.

Opposing Party: Plaintiff, Dana Brunetti

Notice: OK

Background Facts

Now before the Court is Defendant B4U US, Inc.'s motion to quash Special Interrogatories ("SI"), Set One, propounded on B4U US, Inc. ("hereafter "B4U") by Plaintiff Dana Brunetti.

The motion previously came before the Court on July 7, 2026, at which time the Court tentatively ruled that B4U's motion was meritorious insofar as SI, Set One—involving 150 interrogatories—creates an undue discovery burden on B4U.

However, rather than outright grant the motion, the Court found it "proper to continue the hearing and require[d] the parties to meet and confer in an effort to narrow the interrogatories to 50 interrogatories," where, "[i]f the meet and confer conference prove[d] unsuccessful, the Court [would] rule on the remaining issues at the next hearing," and the parties to file, ten court days prior to the continued hearing, either a notice of withdrawal or a joint statement of outstanding issues pertaining to SI, Set One.

The continued hearing was originally set for August 18, 2026, but was later continued to September 22, 2026, on July 21, 2026.

The record fails to reflect any substantive filings by either party since the original July 7, 2026, hearing, let alone any documents to be filed ten court days prior to the instant hearing, i.e., by September 8, 2026, as required by the July 7, 2026, Order.

Motion to Quash

The parties having failed to supplement the record by the Court-imposed date of September 8, 2026, the Court rules on B4U's motion to quash based on the available papers.

The Court adopts its reasoning in the July 7, 2026, Order, and based thereon GRANTS B4U's motion to quash.

The Court QUASHES Special Interrogatories, Set One, served on Defendant B4U US, Inc. by Plaintiff Dana Brunetti.

Defendant B4U US, Inc. is ordered to give notice.
