APPLICATION FOR

ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

Los Angeles Superior

Court Case No. 25CHCV04612

Motion filed: 6/3/26

MOVING PARTY: Defendants Walmart, Inc. and Walmart Real

Estate Business Trust

RESPONDING PARTY: None

NOTICE: Incomplete

RELIEF REQUESTED: An order from this Court admitting Matthew C. Behncke of Susman Godfrey LLP to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this matter.

TENTATIVE RULING: The Application is GRANTED.

BACKGROUND

This action arises from personal injuries allegedly sustained by Plaintiff Vladimir Loganov ("Plaintiff") when he was struck by a motor vehicle while crossing an access road on property controlled and operated by Walmart, Inc. ("Walmart"), Walmart Real Estate Business Trust ("Walmart Trust"), and Athena Property Management, LLC ("Athena"). On December 23, 2025, Plaintiff filed the Complaint against Defendants Walmart, Walmart Trust, PRTC, L.P. ("PRTC"), Athena, Enterprise Rent-A-Car of Los Angeles, LLC, Ferdinand Padilla, and Does 1 through 100, alleging the following causes of action: (1) motor vehicle negligence, (2) general negligence, and (3) premises liability.

On February 17, 2026, Walmart and Walmart Trust (collectively, "Moving Defendants") filed their joint Answer.

On February 18, 2026, PRTC concurrently filed its Answer and a Cross-Complaint against Roes 1 through 25 for equitable/implied indemnity, apportionment and contribution, and declaratory relief.

On June 3, 2026, Moving Defendants filed the Application to Admit Matthew C. Behncke Pro Hac Vice. On July 7, 2026, the Court continued the hearing to allow Defendants to resolve service and other deficiencies. On August 25, 2026, Moving Defendants filed the instant motion for an order granting their application, attaching supplemental declarations.

No objection or opposition to the application has been filed.

ANALYSIS

person who is not a licensee of the State Bar but who is an attorney in good standing and eligible to practice before the bar of any United States court or the highest court in any state ... and who has been retained to appear in a particular cause pending in a court of this state, may in the discretion of such court be permitted upon written application to appear as counsel pro hac vice, provided that an active licensee of the State Bar is associated as attorney of record.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(a).)

person who is a resident of the State of California or is regularly employed or regularly engaged in substantial business, professional, or other activities in the State of California is ineligible for admission pro hac vice. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(a).) “Absent special circumstances, repeated appearances by any person under this rule is a cause for denial of an application.” (Id., rule 9.40(b).)

A.

Application for Admission Pro Hac Vice

Moving Defendants seek admission of their counsel, Matthew C. Behncke (“Behncke”), pro hac vice in this matter.

(1)

Contents of Application

An application to appear as counsel pro hac vice must include:

(1) The

applicant's residence and office address;

(2) The

courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission;

(3) That

the applicant is a licensee in good standing in those courts;

(4) That

the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court;

(5) The

title of each court and cause in which the applicant has filed an application to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and

(6) The

name, address, and telephone number of the active licensee of the State Bar who is attorney of record.

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(d).)

Here, Behncke's application meets the foregoing content requirements. He lists his residence and office addresses, the courts in which he has been admitted to practice, with dates of admission and current standing, and all instances in the past two years in which he has both applied and been admitted pro hac vice to appear in courts within the state. (Behncke Decl., ¶¶ 1-7.) The application also states the name, address, and telephone number of local counsel with whom Behncke is associated in this matter. (Id., ¶ 8.) Associated local counsel, Michael Madigan ("Madigan"), also provides a declaration in support.

Eligibility

Behncke is a member in good standing of the following courts: (1) the State Bar of Texas, (2) the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, (3) the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, (4) the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, (5) the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, and (6) the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas. (Behncke Decl., ¶¶ 3-4.) He attests that he is not currently suspended or disbarred by any court. (Id., ¶ 5.)

Behncke further attests that he is a Texas resident and does not regularly engage in the practice of law or any other business in the State of California. (Behncke Decl., ¶¶ 1, 6.) Behncke indicates that, within the past two years, he has applied three times for admission pro hac vice in the state and federal courts within the State of California, and has been admitted twice. (Id., ¶ 7.)

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that Behncke is eligible for admission pro hac vice pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 9.40(a) and (b).

(3)

Verification

and Service of Application

A verified application to the Superior Court to appear as counsel pro hac vice must be filed “together with proof of service by mail in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure section 1013a of a copy of the application and of the notice of hearing of the application on all parties who have appeared in the cause and on the State Bar at its San Francisco office.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(c)(1).) “[N]otice of [the] hearing must be given at the time prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 unless the court has prescribed a shorter period.” (Ibid.)

Madigan attests that he served the application and supporting declarations by mail to all parties who have appeared and to the San Francisco offices of the State Bar of California, and that he has paid the necessary fee via the State Bar of California's website. (Madigan Decl., ¶ 6.) The proof of service attached to the Application confirms that it was served by mail on Plaintiff's counsel, counsel for PRTC, and the State Bar of California on August 25, 2026. The service requirement has accordingly been met.

Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the Application.

CONCLUSION

The Court GRANTS Defendants Walmart, Inc. and Walmart Real Estate Business Trust's Application to Admit Matthew C. Behncke Pro Hac Vice.

Moving party to give notice.
