REQUEST FOR ORDER - OTHER: APPOINT ELISOR TO SIGN JOINT FEDERAL RETURN

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Ann Goldsmith (Wife) and Respondent Gill Cogan (Husband) married on 6/30/1979. In her Petition, Wife stated the parties' date of separation is TBD. In his Response to the Petition, Husband stated the parties' date of separation is 5/22/2018, for a marriage of 38 years and 10 months. Husband is represented by attorney Christopher Emley. Wife was formerly represented by attorney Christopher Donnelly, who filed a Substitution of Attorney exiting this case on 6/4/2024.
- 2) On 7/22/2020, a Stipulation for Order and Order Re 2018 Tax Returns and Payment was filed. The Stipulation provides in relevant part: "Petitioner and Respondent shall file joint state and federal tax returns for the 2019 tax year."
- 3) On 2/27/2023, a Judgment was entered which incorporated the parties' settlement agreement.
- 4) Now on for hearing is Husband's Request for Order filed 7/27/2026. Husband states that the parties' tax preparer submitted the parties' 2019 tax returns to the IRS in 2020. The IRS alerted Husband in October 2025 that Wife had failed to sign the 2019 tax returns. Husband states that

1 the California Franchise Tax Board accepted the unsigned returns, but the federal IRS has refused
2 to do so. Husband states that, through counsel, he has made repeated attempts to secure Wife's
3 signature on the federal return and Wife has ignored those efforts entirely. Husband lodged a
4 copy of the 2019 joint federal tax return. Husband asks the Court for the following orders to avoid 5 the possibility of further accumulation of interest and penalty charges:

- 6 a. The Clerk of the Court to be appointed as elisor to sign on behalf of Wife the parties' 7 2019 joint federal tax return.
 - 8 b. Reserve jurisdiction to award fees and costs for Husband's having to file the Request for 9 Order due to Wife's failure to respond to repeated efforts to resolve the matter 10 informally.
 - 11 c. Reserve jurisdiction to apportion between the parties any additional taxes, interest, and/or 12 penalties imposed by IRS as a result of delay.
- 13 5) Per the Proof of Service filed 9/1/2026, Wife was personally served with Husband's Request for 14 Order, lodged tax returns, blank Responsive Declaration, and Tentative Ruling Instructions on 15 8/27/2026. Attached to the Proof of Service is a declaration signed under penalty of perjury by 16 the third party (Kathleen Peloquin) who performed the service. Ms. Peloquin states that she 17 arrived at Wife's address and knocked on her door. Ms. Peloquin states Wife answered "yes"
18 when Ms. Peloquin asked if she was Ann Goldsmith. Ms. Peloquin handed Wife the documents.
19 After taking the documents, Wife attempted to hand the documents back to Ms. Peloquin and 20 said, "no, no, no!" Ms. Peloquin told Wife that she could not accept the documents back from her.
21 Wife threw the envelope out from her door and landed on her driveway. Ms. Peloquin picked up
22 the envelope and put it on Wife's doorstep while Wife stood behind her storm door. Wife exited
23 her house and threw the documents onto the windshield of Ms. Peloquin's car. Ms. Peloquin 24 tossed the envelope onto Wife's driveway and drove away. Ms. Peloquin states that as she was 25 driving away, she saw a police car approach Wife's home and stop.
- 26 6) Wife did not file a Responsive Declaration.

27 B. Findings and Order

- 28 1) The Court finds that service of Husband's 7/27/2026 Request for Order was properly effectuated.
- 29 2) The Court hereby grants Husband's unopposed requests:

- 1 a. Court Executive Officer Brandon Riley is appointed as the elisor to sign the parties 2019
2 joint federal tax return on behalf of Wife. Husband shall contact the Administrative 3 Office in Room 205 at 415-551-5737 to schedule an appointment with Mr. Riley to sign
4 the documents. Husband shall bring to the appointment the necessary documents 5 requiring signature and a file-endorsed copy of this order.
- 6 b. The Court's jurisdiction is reserved to award fees and costs for Husband's having to file
7 his 7/27/2026 Request for Order.
- 8 c. The Court's jurisdiction is reserved to apportion between the parties any additional taxes,
9 interest, and/or penalties imposed by IRS as a result of delay.

10 3) Husband's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

11 4) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 12 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
13 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
14 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 15 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 16 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 17 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO BE RELIEVED AS COUNSEL - CIVIL

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Laileshni Singh (Mother) and Respondent Sunil Prasad (Father) married on 11/27/2004. Both parties stated the date of separation is TBD in their Petition and Response to Petition. The parties have one minor child, Jayden (DOB: 5/4/2012).
- 2) On 2/19/2026, this Court entered a partial Judgment which terminated the parties' marriage as of 2/19/2026, terminated the Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support to either party, divides the parties' property, permits Mother to reside at the 330 Winding Way for an unspecified period of time, and requires Father to pay Mother $400,000 for an equalization payment.
- 3) Now on for hearing is Mother's attorney Kelly Robbins' motion to be relieved as counsel for Mother filed 7/27/2026. Ms. Robbins states there has been a breakdown in attorney-client communication and she is no longer able to represent Mother. Ms. Robbins states that she mailed her motion to Mother at Mother's last known address. Mother states she has been unable to confirm that Mother's address is current despite her efforts to call and email Mother.

1 4) Per the Proof of Service filed 7/27/2026, Ms. Robbins' motion to be relieved as counsel and

NOTICE OF MOTION AND DECLARATION FOR JOINDER

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties in this matter are Petitioner Jennifer Phillips (Wife) and Respondent David Phillips (Husband).
- 2) The issues on for hearing on 9/22/2026 involve settlement proceeds which were awarded to Husband in a federal civil rights action entitled Phillips-Kerley v. City of Fresno. Husband and Wife disagree whether the settlement proceeds are community property. Attorney Alexis Gallindo is Husband's attorney of record in the civil rights action and (as described below) Mr. Gallindo states he is no longer in possession of the settlement proceeds.
- 3) On 5/4/2026, Mr. Gallindo filed a declaration signed under penalty of perjury wherein he states that on 4/30/2026, his firm transmitted a complete accounting of the settlement funds to Husband. Mr. Gallindo states that Wife refused to execute a Confidentiality Agreement with respect to the settlement proceeds and states that Wife should therefore receive only redacted filings unless the Court orders otherwise. Per the Proof of Service attached to Mr. Gallindo's 5/4/2026 declaration, Mr. Gallindo's 5/4/2026 declaration was emailed to Husband's attorney and Wife on 5/4/2026.

1 4) On 5/12/2026, Mr. Gallindo filed another declaration signed under penalty of perjury wherein he 2 references an Accounting Filed Under Seal previously submitted to this court. Per the Proof of 3 Service attached to Mr. Gallindo's 5/12/2026 declaration, Mr. Gallindo's 5/12/2026 declaration
4 was emailed to Husband's attorney and Wife on 5/12/2026.

5 5) Following a hearing on 5/14/2026, the Court made the following orders (which are memorialized
6 in the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 6/5/2026):

7 a. The Court ordered that the sum of $45,577.72 would be withdrawn out of the settlement
8 proceeds and a check written to Rocket Mortgage. The Court notes this figure was later 9 determined to be a typographical error and the figure should have read $47,577.72.

10 b. The Court also ordered the following: "After withdrawing his fees and costs and 11 withdrawal and submission of the $45,577.72 payment to Rocket Mortgage, Alex
12 Galindo has agreed to, and the Court orders, that he and his firm shall place the remainder 13 of the settlement proceeds in a blocked interest-bearing client trust account in both 14 parties' names. The account shall remain blocked until further Court order."

15 6) On 7/30/2026, Mr. Gallindo filed a declaration signed under penalty of perjury. Mr. Gallindo
16 states that on 7/24/2026, his firm wired $47,577.72 to Rocket Mortgage LLC using the wire
17 instructions provided by Rocket Mortgage. Mr. Gallindo states that on 7/28/2026, Rocket 18 Mortgage confirmed that Loan No. #2145 is current and reinstated, the foreclosure has been 19 removed, and the next payment of $2,302.16 is due 8/1/2026. Mr. Gallindo also states that on 20 7/15/2026, he opened a blocked, interest-bearing savings account titled in the names of David 21 Phillips-Kerley and Jennifer Phillips with First Bank and deposited the remainder of the 22 confidential settlement proceeds into that account. Mr. Gallindo indicates that First Bank issued a 23 deposit receipt confirming the deposit on 7/16/2026. Per the Proof of Service attached to Mr.
24 Gallindo's 7/30/2026 declaration, Mr. Gallindo's 7/30/2026 declaration was emailed to counsel
25 for Rocket Mortgage, Husband's attorney, and Wife on 7/29/2026.

26 7) Now on for hearing is Wife's motion filed 8/3/2026 asking to join Claimant Galindo & Smith 27 LLP as a party to this case. Wife states that because Claimant Galindo & Smith LLP is in 28 possession of community property funds belonging to the parties, Claimant is "indispensable to a 29 determination of the character and disposition of these funds, and necessary to the enforcement of

1 any judgment rendered on that issue. Without joinder, this court cannot order an accounting,
2 cannot direct disbursement, and cannot enforce any judgment as to these funds.”

3 8) On 8/14/2026, Wife filed a Pleading on Joinder wherein Wife states she has received no
4 accounting of the Settlement Funds and does not know the present location of the settlement
5 funds, the balance remaining, or who exercises control over them. Wife asks the Court:

- 6 a. “For an order joining ALEXIS GALINDO and CURD, GALINDO & SMITH LLP as 7 claimants to this proceeding pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.24;
- 8 b. For a judicial declaration that the Settlement Funds are community property of Petitioner
9 and Respondent in which Petitioner holds a present, existing, and equal interest, and that 10 those funds are subject to the disposition of this court;
- 11 c. For a full and complete accounting of the Settlement Funds from the date of receipt to the 12 present, including all deposits, disbursements, payees, dates, and the balance remaining,
13 served upon Petitioner;
- 14 d. For an order directing Claimants to deposit all Settlement Funds remaining in their 15 possession or control into a blocked account, or with the clerk of this court, pending 16 further order;
- 17 e. For imposition of a constructive trust upon the Settlement Funds and any identifiable
18 proceeds thereof for the benefit of Petitioner to the extent of her community property 19 interest;
- 20 f. For an order restraining Claimants from further disbursing, transferring, or encumbering 21 the Settlement Funds pending judgment in this proceeding;
- 22 g. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
- 23 h. For such other and further relief as the court deems just and proper.”

24 9) On 8/31/2026, Wife filed a Proof of Service stating that her process server served the Pleading on 25 Joinder, Declaration for Joinder, Summons (Joinder), and Tentative Ruling Instructions by 26 substituted service on a security personnel located at Mr. Gallindo’s office who refused to give 27 her name. Wife’s Proof of Service indicates that her process server thereafter mailed the 28 pleadings to Curd Gallindo and Smith LLP.

10) On 9/16/2026, Wife filed a Notice of Filing Declaration of Due Diligence Re: Service on Claimant Alexis Galindo. Per the Declaration of Diligence signed by Wife's process server, Wife's process server attempted service two times. The first time "security will not allow me access" and the server was told to "call whoever I am serving and have them come down and accept documents." The second time security again would not allow the server access and the server "left a copy with security 'Jane Doe' who did not state name for record."

11) On 9/18/2026, Wife filed a Proof of Electronic Service indicating that her Motion for Joinder and related moving papers were electronically served on Mr. Gallindo and Father's attorney Steve Whitworth on 9/16/2026.

12) No pleadings have been filed either by Mr. Gallindo or Husband responding to Wife's motion for joinder.

B. Findings and Order

1) Wife's motion to join Mr. Gallindo's firm as a party to this action was not served on Husband's attorney at least 16 Court days prior to the hearing, as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 1005.

2) The Court also finds that service upon Mr. Gallindo's firm has not been effectuated. Wife did not establish that the woman who was served was "apparently in charge" of the office as required for substituted service under Code of Civil Procedure section 415.20(a).

3) The hearing on Wife's motion for joinder is hereby continued to Thursday, 12/3/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404.

4) No later than 9/25/2026, Wife shall file a declaration (not to exceed 2 pages in length, not including exhibits) addressing Mr. Gallindo's statement in his 7/30/2026 declaration that his firm is no longer in possession of the settlement proceeds and that the proceeds have been deposited into a blocked, interest-bearing savings account titled in the names of David Phillips-Kerley and Jennifer Phillips.

5) Wife shall have her moving papers, a copy of her declaration addressing Mr. Gallindo's statement that his firm is no longer in possession of the settlement proceeds, a copy of the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 9/22/206, and a copy of the Tentative Ruling Instructions served on Mr. Gallindo's firm and Husband's attorney in advance of the next hearing date by the deadlines set

1 forth in the Code of Civil Procedure. Wife shall also file a Proof of Service indicating compliance
2 with this order in advance of the next hearing date.

3 6) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

13 described by Respondent at the beginning of the hearing.
- 14 6) On 7/29/2026, Petitioner filed a declaration asking the Court to reconsider the portion of the order 15 allowing Respondent to retain the battery for the scooter. Petitioner states, "At the hearing, 16 Respondent argued that he should keep the battery because he paid for it and assembled it... The 17 scooter was originally purchased by David Rodriguez in February 2020 with a four-year 18 manufacturer's warranty. Mr. Rodriguez gifted the complete scooter to me in July 2022. At the 19 time of the gift, approximately two years of warranty coverage remained. After Respondent took 20 possession of the scooter, I repeatedly requested that it be returned. Instead, Respondent retained 21 possession for approximately two years while using the scooter himself and refusing to return my 22 separate property... Had Respondent returned the scooter when first requested, I could have 23 sought warranty repairs on replacement while the warranty remained in effect and replacement 24 batteries were still available. Instead, because Respondent retained the scooter until after the 25 warranty expired, Boosted ceased manufacturing replacement batteries, and replacement batteries
26 have become extremely difficult or impossible to obtain. As a result, returning the scooter without 27 its battery leaves me with property that cannot reasonably be used for its intended purpose. The 28 Court correctly determined that the scooter is my separate property. However, permitting 29 Respondent to retain the battery substantially defeats the practical benefit of that ruling because

1 the battery is an essential operating component of the scooter. This result was caused not by any
2 action on my part, but by Respondent's prolonged retention of my property after repeated requests
3 for its return. For these reasons, I respectfully request that the Court modify its order and require 4 Respondent to return the battery with the scooter. If the Court determines Respondent should 5 retain the battery, I alternatively request that Respondent be ordered to pay the reasonable cost of 6 restoring the scooter to working condition. If restoration is no longer reasonably possible because 7 compatible batteries are obsolete or unavailable, I request that the Court order Respondent to pay
8 the fair market value of a complete, operational Boosted Rev scooter.”

- 9 7) On 7/30/2026, Respondent filed a Request for Order. Respondent states that Petitioner failed to 10 appear on 7/29/2026 to retrieve the scooter. Respondent states that Petitioner’s request for 11 reconsideration fails as a matter of law under Code of Civil Procedure section 1008 because 12 Petitioner “openly admits he is simply raising arguments he failed to bring up at the hearing.”
13 Respondent states that he believes the “Allstate 4-Year Extended Protection Plan” submitted as 14 Exhibit A to Petitioner’s 7/29/2026 declaration is fabricated. Respondent states Boosted Inc.
15 never offered or authorized a 4-year extended manufacturer’s warranty on the Boosted Rev
16 scooter and “consumer protections on their product lines were strictly capped at a maximum of 2 17 years.” Respondent also states that even if such a contract existed, it is legally irrelevant because 18 “Boosted Inc. filed for bankruptcy in March 2020 rendering all baseline and operational 19 consumer warranties legally null, void, and entirely unenforceable years before Petitioner left the 20 vehicle with [Respondent].” Respondent further states that Petitioner destroyed the vehicle’s 21 integrity before leaving it with Respondent; the handlebars, stem, internal electronics, and 22 original battery were all damaged. Respondent states that following the parties’ date of 23 separation, he bought and paid for “rare components and the custom battery using separate 2024
24 funds... nearly four years after Boosted ceased operations...” Respondent states he “graciously
25 and voluntarily waived any right or request for monetary compensation during the July 28, 2026
26 court hearing... I stated in my oral argument to the Court that the scooter would include the new,
27 fully operational replacement handlebars/head unit and the working folding mechanism/stem that 28 I personally sourced. Crucially, I specifically and explicitly stated on the record that the custom battery was excluded from this transfer. Petitioner openly agreed to these exact terms in open court before the judge.” Respondent asks the Court to make the following orders:
29

- a. Deny Petitioner’s request for reconsideration.
- b. Confirm the custom vehicle battery as Respondent’s sole and separate property.
- c. Make a final pickup order to be used under civil standby.
- d. Award Respondent $500 in Family Code section 271 sanctions for Petitioner’s bad faith frustration of settlement.

8) On 8/3/2026, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration. Petitioner states that on 7/29/2026, he was attending a “previously scheduled meeting with my Deputy Public Defender, Charles Balara, from approximately 1:30 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. to prepare for my criminal court hearing scheduled for July 31, 2026.” Petitioner attached as Exhibit A letter signed by Charles Balara, Deputy Public Defender dated 7/31/2026 wherein Mr. Balara states, “I am Deputy Public Defender here in San Francisco. I currently represent Mr. Corey Royalmillion. I’m writing to inform you that Mr. Royalmillion was meeting with me to discuss his legal matters on July 29, 2026, from approximately 1:30pm until 5pm. It was the only day and time I had available to meet with him. It was imperative that he meet with me that day to prepare for an upcoming substantive hearing that took place on July 31, 2026.” Petitioner also states that during the 7/28/2026 hearing, Respondent never informed the Court that Eric McDougald would be acting on Respondent’s behalf or would be present during the exchange. Petitioner states that had he known, he would have immediately objected due to safety concerns regarding Mr. McDougald, who Petitioner states previously assaulted him. Petitioner states that Respondent made unauthorized repairs to the scooter and then attempted to charge him for the repairs. Petitioner states that the scooter was delivered to Respondent with its battery installed. Petitioner states that the warranty that was on the scooter was a “separately purchased third-party extended protection plan administered through Allstate,” not Boosted’s manufacturer’s warranty.

9) On 8/3/2026, Petitioner filed a Supplemental Declaration making additional (and repeated) argument regarding his request for reconsideration.

10) On 8/7/2026, Respondent filed a Supplemental Declaration. Respondent states that at no point during the text exchanges between Eric McDougald and Petitioner did Petitioner inform Mr.

1 McDougald that he was detained in an appointment and Petitioner also did not request a modified
2 pickup window. Respondent also states that Mr. McDouglad was not present at the store where 3 the Court had ordered the exchange to take place. Respondent continues to dispute the veracity of 4 Petitioner's claimed warranty. Respondent states, "The replacement custom battery is not a 5 repaired component of the original vehicle; it is an entirely distinct, newly fabricated piece of 6 personal property constructed solely by me in 2024 using post-separation separate funds (Family
7 Code § 771)—well after our separation (occurring after both my asserted date of separation and 8 Petitioner's claimed June 2023 date). Petitioner holds zero ownership interest in this separate 9 property."

10 11) On 8/7/2026, Respondent filed Written Evidentiary Objections to Petitioner's Supplemental 11 Declaration objecting to Exhibit A of Petitioner's 8/3/2026 Responsive Declaration on the 12 grounds of inadmissible hearsay, lack of foundation, and lack of authentication and personal 13 knowledge.

14 B. Findings and Order

- 15 1) Respondent's evidentiary objections to Exhibit A of Petitioner's 8/3/2026 Responsive Declaration 16 are sustained.
- 17 2) Petitioner's request for the Court to reconsider its orders made at the 7/28/2026 hearing is denied 18 on the following bases. First, Petitioner did not file the requisite Request for Order to make that 19 request. Second, the time has expired to file a motion for reconsideration under Code of Civil 20 Procedure section 1008. Finally, Petitioner has failed to identify new or different facts, 21 circumstances, or law that could not have been raised at the 7/28/2026 hearing. This order is 22 made without prejudice to Petitioner's requests, made in his 7/29/2026 declaration that 23 Respondent be ordered "to pay the reasonable cost of restoring the scooter to working condition"
24 or "to pay the fair market value of a complete, operational Boosted Rev scooter." Petitioner may 25 raise these requests at trial.
- 26 3) At the 7/28/2026 hearing, the Court ordered Respondent to return the Boosted scooter to 27 Petitioner "in the condition as described by Respondent at the beginning of the hearing," in other
28 words, without the battery that Respondent represents was a custom replacement battery 29 purchased by Respondent. The Court made no findings or orders regarding the characterization of

1 the battery that Respondent represents was a custom replacement battery purchased by 2 Respondent. The Court's jurisdiction over that issue is reserved for trial.

3 4) Respondent's request for $500 in Family Code section 271 attorney's fees sanctions is denied as 4 Respondent has not shown that he has actually incurred attorney's fees due Petitioner's failure to 5 appear at the scheduled pickup of the scooter and drone.

6 5) The parties are ordered to appear on 9/22/2026 at 9am in Department 404 in-person or by 7 Zoom video to discuss Respondent's request that the Court "make a final pickup order to 8 be used under civil standby." If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide 9 by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set
